Doris Lessing Shadia S. Fahim,1994 This book charts the rationale of Doris Lessing s development in the context of Sufi as well as Western theories a cultural hybrid which proves useful in explaining many areas of misunderstanding in her canon By tracing myriad sources from Oriental literature this study uncovers many areas that have not yet been explored and unlocks the significance of the Mandala symbols which are instructive in understanding Doris Lessing s later writings The sections on Memoirs of a Survivor and Shikasta are particularly interesting as they provide unprecedented sources especially in relation to Oriental literature and its connection with the modern theory of the novel The interaction between Eastern and Western approaches is thus illuminating in understanding Lessing s oeuvre and sheds light on many aspects of her writings It provides a key to her extraordinary vision one that incorporates more than one level and transcends cultural limitations

Feminism and Contemporary Women Writers Radha Chakravarty,2014-05-30 This book attempts to deal with the problem of literary subjectivity in theory and practice The works of six contemporary women writers Doris Lessing Anita Desai Mahasweta Devi Buchi Emecheta Margaret Atwood and Toni Morrison are discussed as potential ways of testing and expanding the theoretical debate A brief history of subjectivity and subject formation is reviewed in the light of the works of thinkers such as Hobbes Hume Kant Hegel Marx

Nietzsche Raymond Williams and Stephen Greenblatt and the work of leading feminists is also seen contributing to the debate substantially

The Dialogic Self Roxanne J. Fand,1999 By theorizing subjectivity according to the dialogic model of Mikhail Bakhtin author Roxanne J Fand posits a moderating self narrator who rather than imposing a single authoritarian voice of fixed ideology and identity negotiates among diverse internalized voices of one s social ecological milieu

Doris Lessing Carey Kaplan, Ellen Cronan Rose,1988 Long neglected by the academic world because of her rejection of belletristic values and resistance to convenient literary taxonomy Doris Lessing has nonetheless built an international following of serious dedicated readers Acknowledging the difficulties posed by the multiple dimensions of Lessing s work Kaplan and Rose have gathered eleven essays that address her artistic philosophical political and psychological complexity and so provide a welcome introduction to the extraordinary depth and diversity of this important contemporary novelist Lessing has been described as an alchemical writer in that her work is directed toward changing people s lives and perceptions rather than simply recording experience Accordingly the contributors examine her various postures and tactics for the purpose of discovering how the alchemical elements inform her various personae Frederick C Stern discusses Lessing s commitment to radical humanist thought while Carey Kaplan examines how Lessing s imperialist past has shaped her futuristic fiction Elizabeth Abel offers a feminist interpretation of the pattern of brother sister incest in Lessing s work showing how Lessing has established Antigone as a female alternative to the Oedipal myth of male incest Particularly insightful is Eve Bertelsen s report of her interview with Lessing demonstrating how Lessing s often evasive style of adversarial dialogue works in concert with her refusal to be conveniently pigeonholed by academic analysis For those readers new to her work Doris Lessing The Alchemy of Survival will serve as a useful introduction to Lessing s concerns and techniques Those who have long admired her writing will find in this collection new keys to understanding Lessing s philosophical political and psychological complexity

Postcolonial African Writers Siga Fatima Jagne, Pushpa Parekh,1998-07-17 Postcolonial African writers have made an enormous contribution to world literature These writers frequently examine such issues as emerging identities in the postcolonial climate neo colonialism and new forms of oppression cultural and political hegemonies neo elitism language appropriation and economic instability During the last decade their works have elicited increasing critical attention This reference book overviews the richness of postcolonial African literature The volume focuses on how postcoloniality is reflected in the novels poetry prose and drama of major minor and emerging writers from diverse countries in Africa including representative North and South African writers as well as writers of the Indian diaspora born in Africa While authors in indigenous African languages continue to produce valuable works the volume principally considers Anglophone and Francophone authors along with two Lusophone writers The reference book begins with an introductory essay on postcolonial criticism and African writing The volume then presents alphabetically arranged profiles of approximately 60 writers such as Chinua Achebe Ama Ata Aidoo Tsitsi Dangarembga Buchi Emecheta Nadine Gordimer Bessie Head Tabar Ben Jelloun Doris Lessing Peter Nazareth Gabriel Okara Femi Osofisan and Efua Theodora Sutherland Each entry includes a brief biography a discussion of major works and themes that appear in the author's writings an overview of the critical response to the author's works and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources These profiles are written by expert contributors and reflect many valuable perspectives The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography of the most important critical works on postcolonial African literature

Third World Women's Literatures Barbara Fister, 1995-09-14 This reference volume serves as a companion to Third World women's literatures in English and in English translation by presenting entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes What plays have been written by women in the developing world What books have been written by Sri Lankan or Brazilian women Which works address themes of feminism or exile or politics in the Third World These are the types of questions that can now be answered through Fister's companion to Third World women's literatures in English and English translation Organized alphabetically this reference volume presents entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes By providing information about and leads to works by and about Third World women an important and largely marginalized literature Fister has created a unique reference tool that will help teachers scholars and librarians both public and academic expand their definitions of the literary making the voices of Third World women available in the same format in which many companions to Western literature do An important book for all public and college level libraries

Doris Lessing Rotraut Spiegel, 1980 The development of Doris Lessing's art from the traditional realism of her early novels to modernist works like The Golden Notebook and Briefing for a Descent Into Hell has been criticised as escapism A detailed formal and thematic analysis of three representative novels shows that the modernism of Doris Lessing's later work is a result of the author's radicalized understanding of our collective alienation Far from indicating a betrayal of her humanistic commitment it is a measure of the sincerity of this author's concern with the ancient dream of free man

Modern British Women Writers Vicki K. Janik, Del Ivan Janik, 2002-11-30 The 20th century witnessed several major cultural movements including modernism anti modernism and postmodernism These and other means of understanding and perceiving the world shaped the literature of that era and with the rise of feminism resulted in a particularly rich body of literature by women writers This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries on 58 British women writers of the 20th century Some of these writers were born in England while others such as Katherine Mansfield and Doris Lessing came from countries of the former Empire or Commonwealth The volume also includes entries for women of color such as Kamala Markandaya and Buchi Emecheta Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes an overview of the writer s background an analysis of her works an assessment of her achievements and lists of primary and secondary sources The volume closes with a selected general bibliography
