  - No other regional integration arrangement in the world is even close to extensiveness of supra-national law.
  - Formally ‘EC Law’ is part that has strong supranational elements, while ‘EU Law’ is more intergovernmental.
    - EC Law applies only to first pillar (this would change if the Constitutional Treaty is passed since it eliminates the pillars).
- Understanding basics of EU law is critical to understanding past & future developments of European economic integration (applies mostly to economic issues).
