Superstitions Max Cryer,2016-05-01 Some people casually say touch wood when they speak of something they hope will happen Others won't allow peacock feathers into the house And almost anyone who finds a four leafed clover will treasure it and keep it Why Some superstitions are so ancient and have been practised for so long that they have come to be regarded as just harmless and widely observed customs without people realising they are basically superstitions For instance many people wouldn't bother tossing spilled salt over their left shoulder or avoid walking under a ladder But they happily continue to wear a wedding ring and blow out candles on a birthday cake They don't know why it's just a custom But both are actually superstitions In a book full of surprises and revelations Max Cryer explains the origins of many of the things we commonly say and observe and why we continue to include them in our lives kissing under the mistletoe the unlucky number thirteen the significance of the bridal bouquet saying bless you after sneezing the hanging of a horseshoe the Scottish play the danger in opals the Leap Year proposal so many aspects of our lives are coloured by superstition Now you can discover the reasons for them in a book that is both witty and informative Superstitions will provide many Eureka moments and settle many family disputes Superstition and Education Fletcher Bascom Dresslar,1907 Publications in education California University,1920 Superstition and Education Fletcher Bascom Dressler,1907 Journal of American Folklore ,1924 Impresario ,1961 University of California Publications in Education University of California, Berkeley,1907 University of California Publications in Education ,1920 Court of Appeals of the State of New York Appellant's Brief , Texas Company V.
