Mao's Third Front Covell F. Meyskens,2020-05-14 An examination of how economic development and everyday life intersected with the temperature of Cold War geopolitics in Mao's China Mao's Third Front Covell F Meyskens,2020-06

In 1964 the Chinese Communist Party CCP made a momentous policy decision In response to rising tensions with the United States and Soviet Union a top secret massive military industrial complex in the mountains of inland China was built which the CCP hoped to keep hidden from enemy bombers Mao named this the Third Front The Third Front received more government investment than any other developmental initiative of the Mao era and yet this huge industrial war machine which saw the mobilization of twelve million people was not officially acknowledged for over a decade and a half Drawing on a rich collection of archival documents memoirs and oral interviews Covell Meyskens provides the first history of the Third Front campaign He shows how the militarization of Chinese industrialization linked millions of everyday lives to the global Cold War merging global geopolitics with local change Transition and Development in China Yun Chen,2017-11-30 China's transition from a planned economy to a market economy has succeeded in producing more than a decade of phenomenal growth Whilst similar reforms in countries of Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union have seen an initial downturn in production usually with a significant rise in unemployment the success of the approach taken by China has been remarkable However China embarked upon the process without a well designed blueprint at the outset The resulting piecemeal partial incremental and often experimental approach has proved complicated to implement requiring a complex melding of politics and economics internal and foreign affairs government and market How the difficult task of balancing the diverse array of often competing concerns has been achieved is the subject of this book which examines the dismantling of the centrally planned system and the mechanism of institutional change in Chinese transition Defence Expenditure, Industrial Conversion, and Local Employment Liba Paukert,Peter J.
