

A large silver vase with gold inlay. The vase has a wide mouth and a flared body. A prominent gold band with a scalloped or beaded pattern encircles the neck and the base. The central part of the vase features a relief in silver and gold. It depicts a seated woman on the left, wearing a striped chiton and a head covering, holding a lyre. To her right is a lion, also in silver and gold, appearing to be in a dynamic pose. The background of the relief is silver, while the figures are highlighted with gold.
