The Story of Maps & Map-making James A. Hathway,1966 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1962 Includes Part 1 Number 1 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals January June Women in American Cartography Judith Tyner,2019-11-13 Although women have been involved in mapping throughout history their story has largely been hidden The standard histories of cartography have focused on men A woman s name is rarely found In Women in American Cartography Judith Tyner argues that women were not deliberately erased but overlooked because of the types of maps they made and the jobs they held Tyner looks at over fifty women exemplars in American cartography and their maps She looks at teachers who made school atlases in the early nineteenth century at pictorial mapmakers and book illustrators who created popular maps at women who pioneered social and persuasive mapping promoting causes such as suffrage at women travelers who recorded their trips and mapped unexplored places at women whose maps helped win Word War II at women academics who studied taught and wrote about cartographic theory at colleges and universities and at women who worked in government agencies and commercial mapping companies These are just a few of the stories of women in American cartography Earth Science Samuel N. Namowitz,1965 Ancient Egypt Michelle Breyer,1996-09 Gold from the Fire Maxine Hancock,2004 Maxine Hancock has become well known among Christians in Canada for her conference speaking broadcasting and writing In these devotional and inspirational pieces she draws on her many years of experience on an Alberta farm and her deep connections to the land the community and the small village church Maxine Hancock a brilliant scholar and teacher and a gifted public communicator here lets us into her inner heart and life Her insights come one by one the way they do in daily living but each of these very personal earthbound essays are informed by a heavenly vision of a superintending God who loves her and leads her Beautifully and poignantly written Gold From the Fire never dodges the hard questions but Hancock s faith shines through them Luci Shaw Author of The Crime of Living Cautiously Maxine Hancock is one of those few scholars who is comfortable and competent debating in a television studio speaking to a packed conferenced assembly giving a reasoned presentation to scholars or encouraging a young student in their walk of faith Her gift of ministry in writing greatly enriches our lives as followers of the Lord Brian C Stiller Tyndale University College Seminary Maxine Hancock is Professor of Interdisciplinary Studies and Spiritual Theology at Regent College in Vancouver British Columbia Among her other books are several on family relationships including Living on Less and Liking in More Re evaluating Your Commitments and Creative Confident Children Creative Units for the Elementary School Teacher Edward F. DeRoche,Erika Gierl,1969 The Business of Satirical Prints in Late-Georgian England James Baker,2017-04-06 This book explores English single sheet satirical prints published from 1780 1820 the people who made those prints and the businesses that sold them It examines how these objects were made how they were sold and how both the complexity of the production process and the necessity to sell shaped and constrained the satiric content these objects contained It argues that production sale and environment are crucial to understanding late Georgian satirical prints A majority of these prints were after all published in London and were therefore woven into the commercial culture of the Great Wen Because of this city and its culture the activities of the many individuals involved in transforming a single satirical design into a saleable and commercially viable object were underpinned by a nexus of making selling and consumption Neglecting any one part of this nexus does a disservice both to the late Georgian satirical print these most beloved objects of British art and to the story of their late Georgian apotheosis a story that James Baker develops not through the designs these objects contained but rather through those objects and the designs they contained in the making

Conceptual Landscapes Simon M. Bussiere,2023-05-15 Conceptual Landscapes explores the dilemma faced in the early moments of design thinking through a gradient of work in landscape and environmental design media by both emerging and well established designers and educators of landscape architecture It questions where and more importantly how the process of design starts The book deconstructs the steps of conceptualizing design in order to reignite pedagogical discussions about timing and design fundamentals and to reveal how the spark of an idea happens from a range of unique perspectives Through a careful arrangement of visual essays that integrate analog digital and mixed media works and processes the book highlights differences between diverse techniques and triggers debate between design representation technology and creative culture in the field Taken together the book s visual investigation of the conceptual design process serves as a learning tool for aspiring designers and seasoned professionals alike By situating student work alongside that of experienced teachers and landscape architects the book also demystifies outdated notions of individual genius and sheds new light on the nearly universally messy process of discovery bridged across years and diverse creative vocabularies in the conceptual design process Lavishly illustrated with over 210 full color images this book is a must read for students and instructors in landscape architecture
