Stranger In An Enchanted World:

Stranger in an Enchanted World Ruth Burnett,1987 Strangers and the Enchantment of Space in Victorian Fiction, 1830-1865 Kristen Pond,2023-10-20 Tracing the origins of how we think about strangers to the Victorian period Strangers and the Enchantment of Space in Victorian Fiction 1830 1865 explores the vital role strangers had in shaping social relations during the cultural transformations of the Industrial Revolution transportation technologies and globalization While studies of nineteenth century Britain tend to trace the rise of an aloof cosmopolitanism and distancing narrative strategies this volume calls attention to the personalizing impulse in nineteenth century literary form investigating the deeply personal reflections on individual and national identities In her book Dr Pond leads the reader through homes of the urban poor wandering the Great Exhibition in the Crystal Palace loitering in suburban neighborhoods riding the railway and touring a country estate Readers will experience how the ordinary can be enchanting and how the mundane can be unexpected discovering a new way of thinking about strangers and their influence on our lives Through an examination of the short and long fictional forms of Martineau Dickens Bront Gaskell and Braddon this study locates the figure of the stranger as a powerful topos in the story of Victorian literature and the ethics of social relations This book will be ideal for those seeking to understand the dynamics of the stranger in Victorian fiction as a figure for understanding the changing dynamics of social relations in England in the early nineteenth century Food, Sex and Strangers Graham Harvey,2014-09-11 Religion is more than a matter of worshipping a deity or spirit For many people religion pervades every part of their lives and is not separated off into some purely private and personal realm Religion is integral to many people s relationship with the wider world an aspect of their dwelling among other beings both human and other than human and something manifested in the everyday world of eating food having sex and fearing strangers Food Sex and Strangers offers alternative ways of thinking about what religion involves and how we might better understand it Drawing on studies of contemporary religions especially among indigenous peoples the book argues that religion serves to maintain and enhance human relationships in and with the larger than human world Fundamentally religion can be better understood through the ways we negotiate our lives than in affirmations of belief and it is best seen when people engage in intimate acts with themselves and others The broad stone of honour: or, The true sense and practice of chivalry Kenelm Henry Digby,1877 The Broad Stone of Honour: Godefridus Kenelm Henry Digby,1877 Godefridus.-v. 2. Tancredus.-v. 3. Morus.v. 4. Orlandus. 2 pts Kenelm Henry Digby,1877 Enchantment and Disenchantment Wai-yee Li,2014-07-14 In a famous episode of the eighteenth century masterpiece The Dream of the Red Chamber the goddess Disenchantment introduces the hero Pao y to the splendors and dangers of the Illusory Realm of Great Void The goddess one of the divine women in Chinese literature who inspire contradictory impulses of attachment and detachment tells Pao y that the purpose of his dream visit is disenchantment through enchantment or enlightenment through love Examining a range of genres from different periods Wai yee Li reveals the persistence of the dialectic embodied by the goddess while illusion originates in love and desire it is only through love and desire that illusion can be transcended Li begins by defining the context of these issues through the study of an entire poetic tradition placing special emphasis on the role of language and of the feminine element Then focusing on the dream plays by T ang Hsien tsu she turns to the late Ming an age which discovers radical subjectivity and goes on to explore a seventeenth century collection of classical tales Records of the Strange from the Liao chai Studio by P u Sung ling The latter half of the book is devoted to a thorough analysis of The Dream of the Red Chamber the most profound treatment of the dialectic of enchantment and disenchantment love and enlightenment illusion and reality Originally published in 1993 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Moving Among Strangers Gabrielle Carey, 2013-11-01 Two literary lives defined by storytelling and secrets As her mother Joan lies dying Gabrielle Carey writes a letter to Joan s childhood friend the reclusive novelist Randolph Stow This letter sets in motion a literary pilgrimage that reveals long buried family secrets Like her mother Stow had grown up in Western Australia After early literary success and a Miles Franklin Award win in 1958 for his novel To the Islands he left for England and a life of self imposed exile Living most of her life on the east coast Gabrielle was also estranged from her family s west Australian roots but never questioned why A devoted fan of Stow s writing she becomes fascinated by his connection with her extended family but before she can meet him he dies With only a few pieces of correspondence to guide her Gabrielle embarks on a journey from the red dirt landscape of Western Australia to the English seaside town of Harwich in a quest to understand her family s past and Stow s place in it Moving Among Strangers is a celebration of one of Australia s most enigmatic and visionary writers
