The Balkan Assignment:

The Balkan Assignment Joe Poyer, 1971 The Balkans and the West Andrew Hammond, 2017-03-02 This collection of essays locates, investigates and challenges the manner in which the Balkans and the West have constructed each other since 1945. Scholars from the two sections of the continent explore a wide range of fiction, film, journalism, travel writing and diplomatic records both to analyse Western European balkanism and to study Balkan representations of the West over the last fifty years. The first section looks back to the Cold War, examining the divergent, often favourable images of the Balkans that existed in Western culture as well as the variety of responses that appeared in South East European writings on the West. The second section analyses the transitions that took place in representation during the 1990s. Here contributors explore both the harsh denigration of the Balkans which came to dominate western discourse after the initial euphoria of 1989 and the emerging tradition of contesting Western balkanism in South East European cultural production. Through this dual emphasis, the volume exposes the representational practices that help to maintain a deeply divided Europe and challenges the economic and political injustices that result. Despite the rise to prominence of postcolonial theory with its awareness of global inequality, the current crises in many parts of South East Europe have received scant attention in literary and cultural studies. The Balkans and the West addresses this deficiency. Ranging in focus from Serbian cinema to Romanian travel literature, from Western economic writings to Yugoslav fiction and from public discourse in Albania to NATO's vast propaganda machine, the essays offer wide insight into representation and power in the contemporary European context.

A Balkan Mission James T. Shotwell, 1949 SCOTT copy 1 From the John Holmes Library collection The Balkan's Angels I. P. Ter Tarj Nyi, Rita Dosek, Péter Tarjányi, 2012-03 It is mere months after Tom's capture of the Serbian ex-president. He and his unit built a strong bond over the course of their mission, but it is time for them to part ways since the job is done. The reward money helps, and Tom is prepared to nally retire in style. But the Serbian underworld that assisted in the president's capture now feels a need for revenge. They want payback for the violence Tom's unit brought to their country. Suddenly, Tom's unit is on the chopping block. An international manhunt is launched to find Tom and the rest of his team. The ma a doesn't want them in a court of law; however, they want them dead. Tom's own country is of no help as he is now considered a war criminal of a different kind: a guilty bounty hunter. Now the team must get back together in order to save their lives and clear their names. Things are quite different now for the whole unit. For the first time in his long, proud career, Tom now finds himself on the wrong side of the law, and it will take a lot more than friendly conversation to get out of Europe alive.

A Syllabus in Modern European History from Charlemagne to the Present (800-1920) William Thomas Morgan, Prescott W. Townsend, 1920 The New Russia, 1920 Balkan Reconstruction Daniel Daianu, Thanos Veremis, 2014-06-03 Focusing scholarly attention on a little-known area of Europe, the book brings together analysts with an insider's view to examine the short and long-term challenges facing the region, the intricate relationship between politics and economics and the irrelevance of quick fixes in the postwar reform of Southeast Europe
