Kusamira Music in Uganda Peter J. Hoelsing, 2021-11-09 A performance culture of illness and wellness In southern Uganda ritual healing traditions called kusamira and nswezi rely on music to treat sickness and maintain well being Peter J Hoelsing blends ethnomusicological fieldwork with analysis to examine how kusamira and nswezi performance socializes dynamic processes of illness wellness and health People participate in these traditions for reasons that range from preserving ideas to generating strategies that allow them to navigate changing circumstances Indeed the performance of kusamira and nswezi reproduces ideas that remain relevant for succeeding generations Hoelsing shows the potential of this social reproduction of well being to shape development in a region where over 80 percent of the population relies on traditional healers for primary health care Comprehensive and vivid with eyewitness detail Kusamira Music in Uganda offers insight into important healing traditions and the overlaps between expressive culture and healing practices the human and other than human and Uganda's past and future Twenty-four Songs of Uganda Peter Cooke, 1966 Songs from Buganda George W. Kakoma, 1969 Theory of African Music, Volume I Gerhard Kubik, 2010-10-30 Vol 1 previously published in 1994 by F Noetzel Playing with Identities in Contemporary Music in Africa Annemette Kirkegaard, 2002 The musics of Africa play a particularly important role in expressing and forming identities This book brings together African and Nordic scholars from both musicology and other disciplines in an attempt to analyse various aspects of the complex playing with volatile identities in music in Africa today Taken together the papers put new light on the assumed or real dichotomies between countryside and city collective and individual tradition and modernity authentic and alien The papers are based on contributions for a conference organized by the research project Cultural Images in and of Africa of the Nordic Africa Institute together with the Sibelius Museum Department of Musicology and the Centre for Continuing Education at Åbo Akademi University in Åbo Turku Finland in October 2000 The book includes a keynote speech by Christopher Waterman UCLA and an introduction by Annemette Kirkegaard Copenhagen University Southern West and East Africa are represented in the studies which cover a great variety of musics Performing Wisdom Dominica Dipio, Stuart Sillars, 2014-03-10 This is the third collection produced by members of a six year research project funded by the NUFU Norwegian Programme for Development Research and Education whose concern was to find preserve and analyse orature spoken forms of all kinds both their unique qualities and their equivalence in importance to literature A major focus was the ways in which forms of orature can be made relevant to the demands of rapidly developing nations faced with insistent problems HIV AIDS administrative needs shifts in social and familial structure the changing roles of women Both innovative and archival the essays explore older legends and modern performances to outline their positive and dynamic contribution to a protean society Some contributors address the ways in which traditional forms may be adapted e.g via new media to combat the HIV AIDS pandemic and to educate children in social and individual responsibility Traditional narratives and children's songs can function to counter cannibalism and child sacrifice Less dark aspects of contemporary society also receive attention Traditional patterns of leadership are adapted to today's conditions especially by offering women models in the form of earlier figures and their actions Two essays analyse the use of proverbs in the speeches of political candidates and discussing traditional music festivals as celebrations of traditional kingship and rule Others examine the nature and operation of specific forms of orature riddles and their subtle alteration according to performer and audience concepts of heroism stories of origin and variants of Little Red Riding Hood These sensitive analyses are framed by pieces from members of the research project in Norway and Uganda Dominica Dipio is Associate Professor in the Department of Literature Makerere University and coordinator in the south of the NUFU research project Stuart Sillars is Professor of English Literature in the Department of Foreign Languages University of Bergen and coordinator in the north of the research project

Culture and Customs of Uganda Kefa M. Otiso, 2006-05-30 Since achieving independence from Great Britain in 1962 the East African country of Uganda has been ravaged by political turmoil and the more recent crisis of the AIDS epidemic but is now in the process of rebuilding and democratizing Culture and Customs of Uganda is a fascinating overview of the current state of Ugandan society where largely rural ethnic groups are experiencing the pull of urban centers while the changes brought about by Western influences bear on practically every aspect of people's lives Examples from the main ethnic groups are used to explain traditional culture and adaptations to modern life in religion gender roles courtship and marriage work education family life ceremonies the arts media and more This is the essential reference source to turn to for solid insight into Uganda The wealth of detail in the coverage of the subjects above plus the land people history literature architecture housing cuisine dress gender roles social customs and lifestyle provides readers with broad sense of the country and its inhabitants The sensitive narrative conveys the nuances between old and new urban and rural elite and poor for each topic In addition the evolution of Ugandan peoples is superbly demonstrated Highlights include a discussion of the ways in which adherents of world religions such as Christianity and Islam mix these with traditional African religious belief in spirits diviners and rainmakers The book also explores patriarchy and the social and inheritance system that has hindered women's education and prospects and exposed them to HIV/AIDS Finally there is a celebration of the various forms of artistic expression such as drumming ceremonial dance and handicrafts particularly ceramic pottery that have won accolades as well as a look at artists who excel in writing poetry producing hip hop and painting batiks for popular consumption

The Uganda Popular Music Archive, 2007 African Music, 1999
Women's Leadership in Music Iva Nenic, Linda Cimardi, 2023-03-03 Various modes of women's contemporary cultural social and political leadership can be found in music Informed by different histories and culturally bound social mores but also by a comparative perspective the contributors of this volume ask what can be considered leadership in culture from women's point of view They deconstruct the notion of leadership as corporative and career related modes of success by showing how women's agency power and negotiation in and through music can and should be considered as empowering transformative and role modeling By interweaving several disciplinary perspectives from ethnomusicology musicology and cultural management to sociology and anthropology this volume aims to substantially contribute to the study of women s leadership
