On Anthologies Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2004-01-01 Over the course of the past twenty five years anthologies have shifted from playing a relatively minor role in academic culture to a position of dominance The essays in this collection explore the significant intellectual economic political pedagogical and creative resonance of anthologies through all levels of academic life They show that anthologies have consequences and are grounded in commitments Striving to articulate these consequences and commitments is a priority in higher education today Most of the contributors to this volume are editors of anthologies and they draw on personal experiences to provide a rare glimpse into the economics and logic of anthology publication Their essays illustrate the ways in which editing an anthology involves negotiation and compromise between intellectual ideal and realistic practice On Anthologies includes discussion of a wide range of anthologies used and produced by teachers and scholars Though the emphasis is on literature and theory anthologies the insights in this volume speak to professionals in all areas of academic life Collectively these essays establish the foundation for continuing critical analysis of anthology production and consumption in all disciplines

Serendipity in Rhetoric, Writing, and Literacy Research Maureen Daly Goggin, Peter N. Goggin, 2018-04-01 In the course of research most scholars have known moments of surprise catastrophe or good fortune though they seldom refer to these occurrences in reports or discuss them with students Serendipity in Rhetoric Writing and Literacy Research reveals the different kinds of work scholars particularly those in rhetoric writing and literacy need to do in order to recognize a serendipitous discovery or a missed opportunity In published scholarship and research the path toward discovery seems clean and direct The dead ends backtrackings start overs and stumbles that occur throughout the research process are elided and seems that the researchers started at point A and arrived safely and neatly at point B without incident as if by magic The path however is never truly clear and straight Research and writing is messy Serendipity in Rhetoric Writing and Literacy Research features chapters from twenty three writing scholars who have experienced moments of serendipity in their own work not by magic or pure chance but through openness and active waiting which offer an opportunity to prepare the mind Serendipity in Rhetoric Writing and Literacy Research illustrates the reality of doing research there is no reliable prescription or one size fits all manual but success can be found with focused dedication and an open mind Contributors Ellen Barton Zachary C Beare Lynn Z Bloom Jennifer Clary Lemon Caren Wakerman Converse Gale Coskan Johnson Kim Donehower Bill Endres Shirley E Faulkner Springfield Lyn e Lewis Gaillet Brad Gyori Judy Holiday Gesa E Kirsch Lori Ostergaard Doreen Piano Liz Rohan Ryan Skinnell Patricia Wilde Daniel Wuebben The Making of the West, Value Edition, Combined Lynn Hunt,Thomas R. Working in the Archives Alexis E. Ramsey, Wendy B. Sharer, Barbara L. Eplattener, Lisa Mastrangelo. Do Not Use, 2009-12-14. Archival research of any magnitude can be daunting. With this in mind, Alexis E. Ramsey, Wendy B. Sharer, Barbara L. Eplattener, and Lisa Mastrangelo have developed an indispensable volume for the first-time researcher as well as the seasoned scholar. Working in the Archives is a guide to the world of rhetoric and composition archives from locating an archival source and its materials to establishing one's own collection of archival materials. This practical volume provides insightful information on a variety of helpful topics such as basic archival theory, processes and principles, the use of hidden or digital archives, the intricacies of searching for and using letters and photographs, strategies for addressing the dilemmas of archival organization without damaging the provenance of materials, the benefits of seeking sources outside academia, and the difficult yet often rewarding aspects of research on the Internet. Working in the Archives moves beyond the basics to discuss the more personal and emotional aspects of archival work through the inclusion of interviews with experienced researchers such as Lynne Lewis Gaillet, Peter Mortensen, Kathryn Fitzgerald, Kenneth Lindblom, and David Gold. Each shares his or her personal stories of the joys and challenges that face today's researchers. Packed with useful recommendations, this volume draws on the knowledge and experiences of experts to present a well-rounded guidebook to the often winding paths of academic archival investigation. These in-depth yet user-friendly essays provide crucial answers to the myriad questions facing both fledgling and practiced researchers, making Working in the Archives an essential resource.
