Strange Encounters:

Immersion in Cultural Difference Natalie Alvarez, 2018-02-06 How immersive simulations from a fictional border crossing site to a mock terrorist training camp attempt to foster understanding across cultures Strange Encounters Richard St. Clair, 2008-07-30 Strange Encounters is a novel made up of three short stories Each character is faced with an unexplainable situation The Lost Souls of I 95 takes place in a rural town A young girl and her father are killed on I 95 by a drunk driver that has been covered up by the North Carolina Highway Patrol to protect one of their own during the summer of July 3 1986 The highway then becomes haunted by the two lost souls who won't rest until justice is served But twenty years later a young highway patrolman comes along and is put to the test to solve the mystery Living in Transit: Youth, Nomads and Reality Sebastián Alejandro, González Montero, 2023-02-10 Living in Transit being in motion is an actual condition Movement is real Moreover it is essential because it concerns kinetic events We can insistently perceive that everything changes and moves All living beings undergo experiences revealing flows adaptations and becoming Quotidian experiences testify to that Directly or indirectly we face reality's movements all the time Atoms move Planets move Animals move Rivers move Trees move Technology moves Economy moves The State moves And people move The ontological assertion that reality is all about beings in motion has an anthropological side that must be considered We indeed live in times highly defined by movement and change As we have said everything moves It is inevitable to perceive and face movement and change For that reason it is essential to ethically assess our human role in changing living scenarios and dynamic beings Strange Encounters Sara Ahmed, 2013-02-01 Examining the relationship between strangers embodiment and community Strange Encounters challenges the assumptions that the stranger is simply anybody we do not recognize and instead proposes that he or she is socially constructed as somebody we already know Using feminist and postcolonial theory this book examines the impact of multiculturalism and globalization on embodiment and community whilst considering the ethical and political implication of its critique for post colonial feminism A diverse range of texts are analyzed which produce the figure of the stranger showing that it has alternatively been expelled as the origin of danger such as in neighbourhood watch or celebrated as the origin of difference as in multiculturalism The author argues that both of these standpoints are problematic as they involve stranger fetishism they assume that the stranger has a life of its own Representations of China in Latin American Literature (1987-2016) Maria Montt Strabucchi, 2023-11-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library as part of the Opening the Future project with COPIM Representations of China in Latin American Literature 1987-2016 analyses contemporary Latin American novels in which China is the main theme Using China as a multidimensional term it explores how the novels both highlight and undermine assumptions about China that have shaped Latin America's understanding of China and shows China to be a kind of literary imaginary third term which reframes Latin American discourses of alterity On one level it argues that these texts play with the way that China stands in as a wandering signifier and as a metonym for Asia a gesture that essentialises it as an unchanging other On another level it argues that the novels employment of China resists essentialist constructions of identity China is thus shown to be serving as a concept which allows for criticism of the construction of fetishized otherness and of the exclusion inherent in essentialist discourses of identity The book presents and analyses the depiction of an imaginary of China which is arguably performative but which discloses the tropes and themes which may be both established and subverted in the novels Chapter One examines the way in which China is represented and constructed in Latin American novels where this country is a setting for their stories The novels studied in Chapter Two are linked to the presence of Chinese communities in Latin America The final chapter examines novels whose main theme is travel to contemporary China Ultimately in the novels studied in this book China serves as a concept through which essentialist notions of identity are critiqued

Experiments in Listening Rajni Shah,2021-06-17 Through an exploration of both practice and theory this book investigates the relationship between listening and the theatrical encounter in the context of Western theatre and performance Rather than looking to the stage for a politics or ethics of performance Rajni Shah asks what work needs to happen in order for the stage itself to appear exploring some of the factors that might allow or prevent a group of individuals to gather together as an audience Shah proposes that the theatrical encounter is a structure that prioritises the attentive over the declarative each of the five chapters is an exploration of this proposition The first two chapters propose readings for the terms listening and audience drawing primarily on Gemma Corradi Fiumara s writing about the philosophy of listening and Stanley Cavell s writing about being in audience The third chapter reflects on the work of Lying Fallow the first of two practice elements which were part of this research asking whether and how this project aligns with the modes of listening that Shah has proposed thus far and introducing Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick s writing about the preposition beside in relation to being in audience In the fourth chapter Shah examines the role of the invitation in setting up the parameters for being in audience in relation to Sara Ahmed s writing about arrival and encounter And in the final chapter the second practice element Experiments in Listening operates to expand our thinking about where and how the work of being in audience takes place Blending the boundaries of theoretical creative and practice based artistic work this book is accompanied by a series of five zines These describe an embodied experience of knowledge from a personal perspective both playfully and seriously following a line of enquiry developed in each of the chapters
