African Pasts Tim Woods, 2018-09-30 African Pasts examines African literatures in English since the end of colonialism investigating how they represent African history through the twin matrices of memory and trauma. Inextricably tied up with the historical conditions of Africa's colonisation, charting the emergence of its independence and scrutinising Africa's contemporary neo-colonial and postcolonial states as a legacy of the colonial past, African literatures are continually preoccupied with exploring modes of representation to work through their different traumatic colonial pasts. Among other issues, this book deals with literature in the era of apartheid, the post-apartheid aftermath, metafictional experiments in African fiction, gender representation in reaction to the trauma of colonialism and imprisonment narratives. African Pasts covers a wide range of African literatures and a cross-section of genres: fiction, poetry, prison narratives, postcolonial theory, and embraces such well-known writers as Soyinka, Coetzee, Ngugi, and Achebe, and more recent writers such as Nuruddin Farah, Tsitsi Dangarembga, Achmat Dangor, Etienne van Heerden, Zakes Mda, Gillian Slovo, and Calixthe Beyala. Country Music Irwin Stambler, Grelun Landon, 2000-07-14 A comprehensive reference source on the history, impact, and current state of country music, offering portraits of figures in the country music world. Memory in Place Cameo Dalley, Ashley Barnwell, 2023-11-23 Memory in Place brings together Indigenous and non-Indigenous scholars and practitioners grappling with the continued potency of memories and experiences of colonialism. While many of these conversations have taken place on a national stage, this collection returns to the rich intimacy of the local. From Queensland's sweeping Gulf Country along the shelly beaches of south Sydney, Melbourne's city gardens, and the rugged hills of South Australia through Central Australia's dusty heart and up to the majestic Kimberley, the collection charts how interactions between Indigenous people, settlers, and their descendants are both remembered and forgotten in social, political, and cultural spaces. It offers uniquely diverse perspectives from a range of disciplines, including history, anthropology, memory studies, archaeology, and linguistics, from both established and emerging scholars, from Indigenous and non-Indigenous contributors, and from academics as well as museum and cultural heritage practitioners. The collection locates some of the nation's most pressing political issues with attention to the local and the ethics of commemoration and relationships needed at this scale. It will be of interest to those who see the past as intimately connected to the future. The Billboard Book of Top 40 Country Hits Joel Whitburn, 2006 All the information since the earliest Billboard charts were originally compiled in 1942 is gathered into this one essential reference on country music that has been updated and expanded to capture today's top recording artists and their biggest songs.
