Lucinda Craddock, 2022-12-20 Edmund Rubbra's music has given him a reputation as a spiritual composer who had an interest in Eastern thought and a mid life conversion to Roman Catholicism This book takes a wide and detailed view of spiritual dimensions or strands that were important in his life positioning them both biographically and within the context of contemporaneous English culture It proceeds to interpret through detailed analysis the ways these spiritual aspects are reflected in specific compositions Thematical treatment of these spiritual issues touching on Theosophy dance Eastern religions and thought nature the evolutionary theory of Teilhard de Chardin and the Christ figure presents a multi faceted view of Rubbra's life and music Its contribution to a scholarly re evaluation of his place within twentieth century British music and culture engages and meshes with several areas of current scholarly research in the arts and humanities including academic interest in Theosophy modernism and the arts experimental dance and the Indian cultural renaissance and East West musical interactions of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries It also adds to a burgeoning body of writings on music and spirituality fuelled by the popularity of later twentieth century and contemporary composers who make more
