Temporary Agency Work and Globalisation Huiyan Fu,2016-03-03 Despite its geographic and industry expansion as part of the ongoing globalisation of service activity temporary agency work TAW is relatively understudied TAW is characterised by a distinct triangular structure where workers are typically hired by staffing or employment agencies while being dispatched to firms that use them as a type of temporary or non regular labour This agency mediated labour dispatching as a newly institutionalised industry has registered rapid growth rates over recent decades across vast swathes of the globe To a great degree TAW is part of a wider structural transformation of work and employment under neoliberalism Arguably controversy over the expanding non regular workforce is at its most acute when it comes to unsavoury labour selling practices In this connection TAW is an exemplary field in which to examine today s flexible capitalism and its concomitant phenomenon i e inequality Featuring holistic and interdisciplinary perspectives this edited collection provides a comprehensive overview of TAW in an international context It reveals how the TAW industry is intertwined with the changing relationship between the state corporations and labour unions at the institutional structural level and also the perceptions and experiences of ordinary workers in everyday practice By combining global and local forces macro and micro levels of analysis and theoretical and empirical investigations the book offers fresh insights into recurring issues of labour flexibility and inequality contributes to practical applications and facilitates fruitful cross national collaborations Railroad
