Small Spaces:

Small Spaces Rebecca Tanqueray, Chris Everard, 2003 This book is about making the most of the space you have whether you live in a one space apartment or have one key room that's just too small. It includes case studies of real homes showing how clever use of decorative elements creates a feeling of space. Small Spaces Beautiful Kitchens, Do you have an ugly duckling kitchen? If so, take this book and learn how to transform it into the pretty and practical swan it was meant to be. Whether your kitchen is galley shaped, U shaped, L shaped, or just plain small, this hands-on workbook offers ideas for kitchens that suit every lifestyle, from city singles to growing families. The kitchen is the heart of every home, the place where we gather with our families and friends, where we prepare and share food, where we work, entertain, and eat. But many kitchens were not designed with all these functions in mind. As a result, they are too small, too dark, and too cramped when what we want is spacious, light, and comfortable. With Small Spaces Beautiful Kitchens, you can change all that. In its pages, you'll learn how to turn your kitchen, no matter how small, how drab, how dysfunctional, into the kitchen of your dreams.

Making the Most of Small Spaces Stephen Crafti, 2002 This publication also features some of Australia's top photographers including Max Dupain and John Gollings and showcases some brilliant designs by architects such as Form Follows Function, Neometro, and Stanic Harding Architecture Interiors. Those settled in the suburban house on the quarter-acre block will be intrigued by the smaller spaces emerging in our cities. From lofts nestled into warehouse spaces to the townhouses hidden in lane ways, the localities are as intriguing as the spaces themselves. With a move to smaller and more flexible spaces, architects and designers are pushing the parameters of available space. Stephen Crafti is a well-known author and journalist, and this is his third book for the Images Publishing Group. This publication also features some of Australia's top photographers including Max Dupain and John Gollings and showcases some brilliant designs by architects such as Form Follows Function, Neometro, and Stanic Harding Architecture Interiors.
