Excerpt SLAVIC MYTHOLOGY CHAPTER I BELIEF IN SOUL AND GENII IN Slavic belief the soul is a being quite distinct from the body which it is free to leave even during life so that there are many stories of human souls coming forth from the bodies of sleeping persons and either dwelling in trees or in the shape of white birds fluttering about in the world and finally returning to their normal habitations It is inadvisable to go to bed thirsty lest the soul wearied by its search for water may weaken the body If a man faints his soul leaves his body and uneasily flutters about the world but when it returns consciousness is likewise restored Some individuals have lain like dead for three days during which time their souls dwelt in the other world and beheld all that might be seen either in heaven or in paradise A soul which leaves the body when asleep and flies about in the world is called Vjedogonja or Zduh Zduhacz Spirit by the Serbs and not only the souls of sleeping persons but even those of fowls and domestic animals such as cats dogs oxen etc may be transformed into Zduhaczs These genii regardless of nationality sex or age assemble on mountain tops where they battle either singly or in troops the victors bringing to their countrymen a rich harvest and success in breeding cattle but if a man s soul perishes in this fight he will never awake In Montenegro a distinction is drawn between Zduhaczs of land and sea the former causing drought and the latter rain so that the weather depends on which of these two wins A sudden storm points to a battle among such Zduhaczs but in all other respects these genii are considered good and sensible and stand in high repute The Montenegrins personify the soul as Sjen or Sjenovik Shado
