Soul Space:

Soul Space Jerome Daley,2008-11-13 So often there is a gap between the fulfilling life we long for and the frenzied life we live We know the frustration all too well but we long for something more This book beckons readers to that place where God breaks in and restores meaning to the mundane

Soul Space Kevin Callahan,2008-11 We worship a Christian God who came down from heaven made himself human and participated in our humanity alongside us in his birth life death and resurrection Yet every weekend millions of people gather in worship environments across this country that have a body language of performance that communicates sit back relax and enjoy the show It hasn't always been this way in fact it has only been this way in the relatively recent past 100 years of Christianity When we started plugging stuff in we gradually lost our ability to use all our senses which resulted in these banal modern one dimensional concert hall church spaces Our soul space was sacrificed to the gods of modernity What can we relearn from our forebears about this lost art of participation As it turns out it's not rocket science but it is rocket art This book will begin with ministry transition through philosophy then research the worship environment and finally view the art and architecture All this in pursuit of rocket art as we travel through time and space with the three amigos of the builders of Chartres Cathedral the Anasazi of Chaco Canyon New Mexico and Grace Community Church in Indianapolis

Forty Years of Sacred Space Dr. Patrick Donovan,2013-11-01 After forty three years in the sacred space of caring for patients Dr Donovan shares his observations and thoughts about illness and healing He believes illness serves us by acting as life's transformative process As such the journey through our illness may be precisely the very experiential journey we need to realize our healing and ourselves more fully After all we don't get cancer Cancer like any illness is a process We are the cancer we manifest Our cancer arises out of our own tissues and cellular make up To rid our self of our cancer is to rid our self of a part of our self Instead of thinking about illness as something we get something separate from ourselves needing to be removed or defeated Dr Donovan thinks we might well do better viewing our illness as a transformational journey that must be undertaken and completed for our healing to emerge We can't get rid of our selves but we can transform ourselves and our illness provides us with that opportunity It allows us our healing
