U-505 Victory L. Cortesi, Lawrence Cortesi, 1986-03     The Minute Man ,1943     Minute Man ,1944     Field Organization News Letter ,1945     Victory at Sea Henry Salomon, Richard Hanser, 1959 Picture and text story of Allied naval action in the World War adapted from the NBC television series of the same name produced by Henry Salomon and Donald B Hyatt Text by Richard Hanser     Warships Associated with World War II in the Pacific Harry A. Butowsky, 1985     Twenty Million Tons Under the Sea Daniel V. Gallery, 2018-02-28 Terrific the first hand story of Uncle Sam's U Boat killers Chicago Daily News The only thing that really frightened me during the war was the U boat peril Winston Churchill German U Boats were causing havoc for the Allied fleets across the oceans of the world The Battle of the Atlantic had been ongoing since the beginning of the war and the Royal Navy United States Navy and Allied merchant shipping were taking heavy casualties against these underwater terrors The U 505 had been launched on 25 May 1941 Over the next three years she went on to sink a total of eight ships But the upper hand that once had been held by U Boats was beginning to weaken and tide began to turn in favor of the Allied navies Daniel Gallery in his brilliant memoir explains how he led Task Group 21.12 in the battle against the U Boat threat Commanding the USS Guadalcanal he led his crew to sink three of these menacing submarines but his greatest achievement was to capture the U 505 off the coast of Africa He was the first American officer to capture an enemy warship since the War of 1812 and this victory gave the United States Navy not only a great victory but also the codebooks Enigma machine and other secret materials found on board critically assisted the Allied codebreakers Excellent in several ways it provides a fine quick survey of the whole Atlantic war it describes the operation of the German U boat service and most dramatically it tells how an American task force under Admiral Gallery achieved the unique feat of capturing a German submarine Publishers Weekly One of the best non fiction books about World War II Raleigh News Observer One of the war's most exciting memoirs Chicago News A first rate adventure tale suspense and excitement told with a seaman's salty zest excellent reading Chicago Sunday Tribune A masterful job that merits the attention of every lover of sea stories Pittsburgh Press Brimming with thrills Philadelphia News An engrossing tale Pungent entertaining informative Navy Times A humdinger of a sea story a highly readable book trimmed from stem to stern with the writer's irrepressible sense of humor Chicago Sunday Times Daniel V Gallery was a rear admiral in the United States Navy He saw extensive action during World War II fighting U boats during the Battle of the Atlantic After the war Gallery was a prolific author of fiction and non fiction Twenty Million Tons Under the Sea was originally published in 1956 and he passed away in 1977     Traveler's Guide to Ship Museums in the United States Charles L. Barnett, 2025-09-12 This book comes from the author's passion for traveling learning and exploring new adventures Additionally a love ships of many types from the US Navy the US Coast Guard other nations and the contribution of all of them to the history of the United States of America This book's intention is to provide the reader with a guide to plan trips to the ship museums in the United States

Although there seems to be a rather small market for coffee table books this book is intended as such The first part is organized to list the ship museums as follows 1 by state 2 by city and 3 by ship s name The second part contains the appendixes which organize the ships to aid the reader as follows Database One listing is as follows 1 by state 2 by city 3 by hull number if it applies 4 by page number 5 by telephone number 6 by email address 7 by ship type and 8 by information source Database Two listing is as follows 1 ships name in more than one way for example USS Alabama and Alabama USS 2 by hull number if it applies 3 by state 4 by city 5 by page number 6 by phone number and 7 by email address The sources of the information are listed in the preface of this book AB Bookman's Weekly ,1999 American Foundryman ,1954

U.S. Coast Guard Magazine ,1956 Museum of Science and Industry, Chicago Jay Pridmore,Museum of Science and Industry (Chicago, Ill.),1997 In his introduction author Jay Pridmore relates how the Museum was founded by Chicago businessman and philanthropist Julius Rosenwald and how it was installed in the imposing Palace of Fine Arts an architectural monument from the World s Columbian Exposition of 1893 Then he leads an entertaining and informative tour of the Museum featuring the incredibly diverse exhibits in five zones Energy Transportation Space and Defense The Human Body and Communications Discussed and illustrated are such dramatic icons of the Museum s early years as the Coal Mine a complete working mine operation installed in the basement and the U 505 a German submarine captured during World War II Among the many other highlights are a full size Boeing 727 airliner the Apollo 8 spacecraft which circled the Moon in 1968 an early display on the prenatal development of a human baby and the nation s first permanent exhibit on AIDS Great American Ships James P. Delgado,J. Candace Clifford,1991-12 A welcomed guidebook for anyone interested in historic ships and their preservation J Revell Carr President Mystic Seaport Museum Jim Delgado and Candace Clifford have produced a work that makes rewarding reading as well as provides an invaluable source of information on maritime heritage Their adventurous exploration of this heritage will interest more people in saving our historic ships Peter Stanford President National Maritime Historical Society Our maritime heritage is perhaps best represented by ships ships that brought our ancestors to the New World that fought in battles to protect our shores that moved people and goods from one coast to another and along the continent s great waterways and that opened up commerce in foreign lands Yet for all their great importance ships are among the most fragile of historic resources They are especially subject to neglect and require extraordinary care to preserve them And they cannot be as easily put to new uses as old buildings requiring therefore a special dedication if they are preserved Great American Ships for the first time celebrates this part of our national maritime heritage Here are cataloged more than 225 ships on view to the public from Maine to Hawaii including riverboats battleships ocean liners fishing craft yachts and submarines Naval Engineers Journal ,2004 Battle of the Atlantic Wallace B.
