Days I may have some trusted info. I asked my old cousin, and he actually reminded something about it. He said that he probably heard this on "Atomic TV" which was a polish music station in 1997-2000, before in 2000 MTV Poland replaced it with MTV channel. Then he said, that he watched this during the night after 12AM.

subsequently decided to use a similar singer performing a slightly different song.

I am in no way sure this was even done with the Jem cartoons. But if you remember these songs, you remember they were always shown in short video segments.

My advice is begin looking through import DVDs of the cartoon. There's a list of all the songs or titles somewhere I've seen, but I'm not that invested in this mystery that I'd look them all up.

Still I'm pretty confident the key to solving this mystery could lie in the Video Gems (no pun!) UK release of the original episodes. No idea if anyone can find those, but they would contain, perhaps, rescored versions of certain music which is otherwise obscure.

Good luck on this as I've no idea where those tapes are or if someone has checked them. But
