What Kids Like to Do Edward Stautberg, 1993 Mom I m bored For every parent who s heard it and every child who s said it this book brings relief and innovative entertainment ideas Written by and for children this easy to use guidebook offers children s insight on what they really like to do From the Dress-Up Corner to the Senior Prom Jennifer Bryan, 2012-03-22 Very few PreK 12 teachers are adequately trained to address the gender identity and sexual identity of their students in a developmentally appropriate and pedagogically sound manner Yet responsible adults parents educators pre service teachers coaches religious instructors camp administrators and school counselors must help children navigate the inherently diverse increasingly complex world of gender and sexuality in the twenty first century From the Dress Up Corner to the Senior Prom is a practical forward thinking resource for anyone involved in educating children and adolescents Jennifer Bryan takes readers into classrooms administrative meetings recess parent conferences and the annual pep rally to witness the daily manifestations of Gender and Sexuality Diversity at school She provides a coherent framework for understanding what readers see and invites them to use a contemporary heart mind perspective as they consider the true developmental needs of all elementary middle and high school students The book features thoughtful questions models of dialogue accessible lesson plans and many pedagogical strategies At the heart of this book though are the evocative stories from teachers students and parents that Bryan has listened to over the span of her career These personal anecdotes bring the comprehensive explorations of this seminal work to life Oversight Hearings on the Child Nutrition Programs United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Subcommittee on Elementary, Secondary, and Vocational Education, 1980 Sleep Wrecked Kids Sharon Moore, 2019-08-06 An easy to read fully referenced current summary of sleep in children for both parents and professionals could be core curriculum for MDs Dr Brian Lyttle MD FRCP Pediatric Respirologist Kids often suffer unknowingly from the consequences of sleep problems because their issue is frequently missed or dismissed by both health professionals and parents Sleep disorders are a major public health issue that can kickstart a lifetime pattern of health behavior and learning problems From ages 4 10 at least twenty five percent of kids have sleep problems Sleep Wrecked Kids guides parents towards good sleep as the norm allowing themselves and their children to grow and thrive Speech pathologist and myofunctional practitioner Sharon Moore teaches parents why bad sleep is connected to a myriad of health problems what good sleep actually means how to identify red flags for sleep problems how to improve sleep quality by improving airway health and so much more Parents are empowered to not only get more sleep themselves but also to help their children get the sleep they need every night Lady Friends Karen L. Ito, 2018-08-06 Many indigenous Hawaiians who have moved to the islands cities languish at the bottom of the socioeconomic scale and are thought to have lost their cultural roots Initially apolitical urban Hawaiians were often skeptical of activists who sought to revitalize traditional ways yet as Karen L Ito shows Hawaiian women in particular continue to maintain and express crucial aspects of their cultural heritage in their lifestyle and interactions with others Ito conducted intensive fieldwork with six Honolulu families all of which shared the distinguishing characteristics of Hawaii s matrifocal society In her close examination of the friendships and family relations among the women in these households she focuses on the significance of a traditional manner of speech known as talk story which they use when conversing together She describes how her subjects employ metaphoric language to address issues concerning responsibility retribution understandings of self and personhood and methods for conflict resolution For these lady friends Ito finds the emotional quality and quantity of their social relationships help define personal identity while their common concepts of morality bind them together By applying ethnopsychological strategies to the exploration of culture Ito demonstrates cultural continuity at a level where most observers would not expect to find it Lady Friends brings a new dimension to Hawaiian research
