Winning In Asia:

Winning in Asia Peter J. Williamson, Dean of MBA Program and Professor of Business Policy Peter J Williamson, 2004 The competitive landscape in Asia is undergoing a sea change Companies are finally breaking the bonds imposed by the 1997 financial crisis The engine of growth is shifting from exports to Asian market demand China's rapid development is redrawing the Asian playing field National fiefdoms are succumbing to cross border competition Together these forces are signaling the emergence of a fundamentally new competitive game and there will be no going back International business expert Peter J Williamson argues that competing in this rapidly evolving arena will require a very different kind of company In this book he identifies the key challenges that will distinguish the winners in tomorrow's Asia and explores the fundamental changes in business models mind sets organizational structures and management processes that will be required to meet those challenges Asian companies will need to leverage the strengths of their local heritage into the future by building distinctive new strategies around them Western multinationals will need to fundamentally reassess the approaches that have won them a share of Asia's rapid growth over the last two decades Laying out strategies for creating a new and distinctive breed of Asian corporation Winning in Asia provides a blueprint for reshaping the future of Asian competition

Winning in Asia, Japanese Style V. Aggarwal, S. Urata, 2016-04-30 Despite the regional currency crisis of 1997 1998 Asia Pacific economies continue to be among the most attractive markets in the world Japanese American and European firms have invested heavily in the past decades and now are positioning themselves to take advantage of the post Asian recovery phenomenal Chinese growth rates and deepening economic liberalization This pathbreaking work focuses on understanding the market and nonmarket strategies employed by Japanese firms to boost their share of the developing Asian market and to rally the Japanese government in support of their initiatives In addition to advancing a novel theoretical framework to analyze strategy the book contains an overview chapter focuses on Japanese investment and trade trends in Asia and original case studies of the banking automobile telecommunications chemical software and electronics sectors that provide insight into winning strategies in Asia

The United States and Asia Robert G. Sutter, 2019-10-17 Now in a fully revised and updated edition this cogent book provides an overview of the historical context and enduring patterns of U S relations with Asia Noted scholar Robert G Sutter offers a balanced analysis of post Cold War dynamics in Asia which involve interrelated questions of security economics national identity and regional institution building He demonstrates how these critical concerns manifest a complex mix of realist liberal and constructivist tendencies that define the regional order He describes how the United States has responded to Asia's growing strength and importance while at the same time trying to maintain its leading position as an Asian power despite China's rising influence Considering the most important transition in American policy toward Asia since the end of the Cold War Sutter assesses the growing U S China rivalry that now dominates both regional dynamics in the Asia Pacific and U S policy in the region

Pacific region This book is the first to comprehensively chart the development of Southeast Asia's relations with the People's Republic of China (PRC) from 1949 to 2010 detailing each of the eleven countries' ties to the PRC and showing how strategic concerns associated with China's regional posture have been a significant factor in shaping their foreign and defence policies. In addition to assessing bilateral ties, the book also examines the institutionalization of relations between the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) and China. The first part of the book covers the period 1949-2010; it examines Southeast Asian responses to the PRC in the context of the ideological and geopolitical rivalry of the Cold War, Southeast Asian countries' policies towards the PRC in the first decade of the post-Cold War era, and deepening ties between the ASEAN states and the PRC in the first decade of the twenty-first century. Part Two analyses the evolving relationships between the countries of mainland Southeast Asia (Vietnam, Thailand, Myanmar, Laos, and Cambodia) and China. Part Three reviews ties between the states of maritime Southeast Asia (Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, the Philippines, Brunei, and East Timor) and the PRC. Whilst the primary focus of the book is the security dimension of Southeast Asia-China relations, it also takes full account of political relations and the burgeoning economic ties between the two sides. This book is a timely contribution to the literature on the fast-changing geopolitics of the Asia-Pacific region.

Despite the regional currency crisis of 1997-1998, Asia-Pacific economies continue to be among the most attractive markets in the world. Although Japanese and American firms have invested heavily in the past decades, European firms are poised to take advantage of the post-Asian recovery, phenomenal Chinese growth rates, and deepening economic liberalization. This volume focuses on understanding the market and non-market strategies employed by European firms to boost their share of the Asian market and to rally European governments and the European Union in support of their initiatives. In addition to a novel theoretical framework to analyze strategy, three chapters focus on investment trends in Asia, lobbying in Asia, and the EU. The book includes original case studies of the air transport, automobile, software, and finance sectors.
