Onomatopoeia in the World's Languages Livia Körtvélyessy, Pavol Štekauer, 2024-04-01 This is the very first publication mapping onomatopoeia in the languages of the world The publication provides a comprehensive multi level description of onomatopoeia in the world's languages The sample covers six macro areas defined in the WALS Euroasia Africa South America North America Australia Papunesia Each language descriptive chapter specifies phonological morphological word formation semantic and syntactic properties of onomatopoeia in the particular language Furthermore it provides information about the approach to onomatopoeia in individual linguistic traditions the sources of data on onomatopoeia the place and the function of onomatopoeia in the system of each language

Theory and description in African Linguistics Emily Clem, Peter Jenks, Hannah Sande, 2019 The papers in this volume were presented at the 47th Annual Conference on African Linguistics at UC Berkeley in 2016 The papers offer new descriptions of African languages and propose novel theoretical analyses of them The contributions span topics in phonetics phonology syntax semantics and pragmatics and reflect the typological and genetic diversity of languages in Africa Four papers in the volume examine Areal Features and Linguistic Reconstruction in Africa and were presented at a special workshop on this topic held alongside the general session of ACAL

The Languages of Africa and the Diaspora Jo Anne Kleifgen, George C. Bond, 2009 This book takes a fresh look at subordinated vernacular languages in the context of African Caribbean and US educational landscapes highlighting the social cost of linguistic exceptionalism for speakers of these languages Chapters describe contravening movements toward various forms of linguistic diversity and offer a comprehensive approach to language awareness in educative settings

The Structure of Setswana Sentences University of Botswana. Department of African Languages and Literature, 2000 This is the second in a series in Setswana language literature and culture providing a uniquely comprehensive and systematic description of the grammar of Setswana particularly at sentence level It is based in the Standard Generative Theory of 1965 and deals with most aspects of the grammar basic structure rules and rules which are lexical transformational semantic and phonological All new terms and concepts are systematically explained

Historical Dictionary of Botswana Fred Morton, Jeff Ramsay, Part Themba Mgadla, 2008-04-23 In September 2006 Botswana celebrated its 40th anniversary of independence During its four decades of freedom the average individual annual income in Botswana has risen from less than 500 in 1966 in today's prices to more than 5 000 in 2006 It has held nine open and free national elections it has expanded the provision of electricity water education and health services to most of its people and it has become an archetype for other nations wanting to put the profits from its natural resources back into the nation's development While much has improved in the country Botswana still faces three major issues the AIDS epidemic the tens of thousand refugees from South Africa Namibia and Zimbabwe and conflict diamonds The fourth edition of the Historical Dictionary of Botswana through its chronology introductory essay appendixes map bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on important persons places events institutions and significant political economic social and cultural aspects provides an important reference on this burgeoning African country The Linguistic Review, 2007 Few People, Many Tongues J. F. Maho, 1998 A comprehensive overview of the languages spoken in Namibia their sociology genetic relations phonology grammar state of linguistic research development for educational use and language policy Botswana Herman M. Batibo, Birgit Smieja, 2000 The need of the national language Setswana to participate actively in society politics and democratisation as both national language and lingua franca of Botswana has caused language domination and suffocation on the part of the 25 or so minority languages As a result these languages are now going through a process of language shift and death Consequently their cultures too suffer great losses in order to keep pace with the mainstream society The aim of the book is threefold a to inform the large public both local and international about the sociolinguistic and related issues regarding the minority languages of Botswana b to provide facts about the state and future trends of the minority languages in order to sensitise the public and the relevant authorities about the issues involved and c to present ideas and insights in order to stimulate academic debates on the minority languages Linguists from Botswana as well as from Europe and U S A present their latest field research findings to shed light on the present situation of the minority languages

Globalisation and African Languages Katrin Bromber, Birgit Smieja, 2004 Globalisation and African Languages links African language studies to the concept of globalisation which increasingly undergoes critical review Hence African linguists of various provenience can make valuable contributions to this debate In cultural matters which by definition include language there is often a sense that globalisation leads to a major trend of homogenisation which results in a reduction of diversity on the one hand and on the other in new themes being incorporated into global cultural patterns However often conflicting and overlapping particularistic interests exist which have a constructive as well as destructive potential This aspect leads directly to the first of three sections of this volume LANGUAGE USE AND ATTITUDES which addresses some of the burning issues in sociolinguistic research Since this research area is tightly linked to the educational domain these important issues are addressed in articles that comprise the second section of this volume LANGUAGE POLICY AND EDUCATION The third section of the volume presents articles dealing with LANGUAGE DESCRIPTION AND CLASSIFICATION demonstrating which parts of different language systems are affected through contact under historical and modern conditions The contributions of all the well known scholars in this volume show that globalisation is a two way street and to ensure that all sides benefit in a reciprocal manner means the impacts have to be monitored globally regionally nationally and locally By disseminating and emphasising these linguistic findings as part of the global cultural heritage African language studies may offer urgently needed new perspectives towards a rapidly changing world
