imperial exchanges and charts some contemporary legacies of those inequitable imports and exports transportations and transmutations Sheep farming in Australia transforming the land as it dispossessed the native inhabitants became a symbol of new white nationhood The transportation of plants and animals into and across the Pacific even where benign or nostalgic had widespread environmental effects despite the hopes of the acclimatisation societies involved and by extension of missionary societies planting the seeds of Christianity In the Caribbean plantation slavery pushed back the jungle itself an imported word and erased the indigenous occupants one example of the righteous biblically justified cultivation of the wilderness In Australia artistic depictions of landscape often driven by romantic and gothic aesthetics encoded contradictory settler mindsets and literary representations of colonial Kenya mask the erasure of ecosystems Chapters on the early twentieth century in Canada Kenya and Queensland indicate increased awareness of the value of species preservation conservation and disease control The tension between traditional and Euroscientific attitudes towards conservation is revealed in attitudes towards control of the Ganges while the urge to resource exploitation has produced critical disequilibrium in Papua New Guinea Broader concerns centering on ecotourism and ecocriticism are treated in further essays summarising how the dominant West has alienated nature from human beings through commodification in the service of capitalist progress

The Accursed Mountains Robert Carver,1999 The remarkable tale of a series of journeys through remote extraordinary Albania in the brief period between Communism and anarchy before it was again closed to Western travellers Travelling by bus on foot by mule and horse staying with Albanians in their houses and crumbling Stalinist tower blocks Robert Carver meets Vlach shepherds and village intellectuals ex Communist Special Forces officers and juvenile heroin smugglers missionaries with jeeps and light planes and ex prisoners of Enver Hoxha who have spent 45 years in the Albanian gulag In the remote villages of the Accursed Mountains of the far north he is the first Briton seen since the Second World War when Intelligence officers were parachuted in to help fight the German occupiers On his journey to Lake Gashit high above the snowline on the Serb Montenegrin border Carver survives murder attempts and suicidal bus rides He sees villages last visited by outsiders in 1933 which had effectively been hermetically sealed off from the rest of the world In Tirana he experiences the contrasting side to life in Albania when he finds himself in the diplomatic set inadvertently consorting with Balkan highlife and involved with eccentrics worthy of an Evelyn Waugh novel High adventure danger and comedy alike are recounted in this sharp and spirited narrative a highly original experience of a mysterious mountain land
