Standards-Based Education and the Dilemma of Student Subjectivity Edgar D. Johnson,2010-11-05 The book critiques standards based education in the U S highlighting its neglect of student differences and reliance on a rational actor model It examines key events and documents analyzes non school education models and proposes principles for more student centered alternatives

What Can We Do When School's Not Working? Abigail Fisher,Naomi Fisher,Eliza Fricker,2025-04-21 An increasing number of children are struggling to attend school The conventional approach prioritises a rapid return to their setting For some children this simply doesn t work They are stuck not attending school but not learning out of school either What happens then and what can we do about it This illustrated guide lifts the lid on the experiences of children and families who are struggling within the school system and explores how we can work with these young people to maximise their chances of a positive and fulfilled life The book encourages professionals to take a new perspective and to consider what can be done differently It explores the ways in which difficulties with school are understood by children parents and professionals and shows how things can go wrong and right using real life examples from a range of settings Chapters delve into common interventions and the impact these can have in practice before introducing alternative approaches which have the child at the centre The voices of young people are foregrounded throughout shedding light on their struggles with attendance including when placements have completely broken down and importantly showing how they have gone onto success Original illustrations are included to bring these ideas to life Placing authentic experiences at the core this book offers a valuable insight into the lives of children and families when school has gone wrong and will leave you with new ideas as to how to turn things around What Can We Do When School s Not Working is essential reading for professionals working with children who are struggling with school attendance from SENCOs and educational support workers to educational psychologists senior leadership teams and local authorities The Church School Journal ,1876

Leading for Change Through Whole-School Social-Emotional Learning Jennifer E. Virginia Journal of Education ,1913 The Quarterly Journal of the University of North Dakota University of North Dakota,1920 Journal of Experimental Pedagogy and Training College Record ,1912 Virginia School Report ... Biennial Report [etc.] Virginia. Department of Education,1901 A Decade of Research on School Principals Helene Årlestig,Christopher Day,Olof Johansson,2015-11-13 This book provides a unique map of the focus and directions of contemporary research on school leadership since 2000 in 24 countries Each of these directions has its own particular cultural educational and policy history Taken together the various chapters in the volume provide a rich and varied mosaic of what is currently known and what is yet to be discovered about the roles and practices of principals and their contributions to the improvement of teaching and the learning and achievement of students The particular foci and methodological emphases of the research reported illustrate the different phases in the development of educational policies and provision in each country This collection is an important addition to existing international research that has shown beyond any reasonable doubt that the influence of school principals is second only to that of teachers in their capacity to impact students progress and achievement and to promote equity and social justice
