Winter Interlude 37:

The Last to Leave Margaret Clough, 2014-08-23 The Last to Leave is Margaret Clough's second collection of poetry. These poems follow on from her first extremely popular collection At Least the Duck Survived 2011 in that the light warm hearted tone continues as does Clough's engagement with aging and mortality. These poems are a tonic and leave the reader feeling refreshed, saddened and better off. Clough has participated in The Franschoek Literary Festival and has been invited to a number of reading engagements in the Western Cape including the McGregor Poetry Festival. Her books sell out every time she reads.

Britten, Voice and Piano Graham Johnson, 2017-10-03 This collection of eight lectures by internationally acclaimed pianist Graham Johnson is based on a series of concert talks given at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama as part of the Benjamin Britten festival in 2001. The focus of the book is on Britten's songs starting with his earliest compositions in the genre. Graham Johnson suggests that the nature of Britten's creativity is especially apparent in his setting of poetry that he becomes the poet's alter ego. A chapter on Britten's settings of Auden and Eliot explores the particular influences these writers brought to bear at opposite poles of the composer's life. The inspiration of fellow musicians is also discussed with a chapter devoted to Britten's time in Russia and his friendship with the Rostropovitch family. Closer to home the book places in context Britten's folksong settings illustrating how he subverted the English folksong tradition by refusing to accept previous definitions of what constituted national loyalty. Drawing on letters and diaries and featuring a number of previously unpublished photographs this book illuminates aspects of Britten's songs from the personal perspective of the pianist who worked closely with Peter Pears after Benjamin Britten was unable to perform through illness. Johnson worked with Pears on learning the role of Aschenbach in Death in Venice and was official pianist for the first master class given by Peter Pears at Snape in 1972.
