Whoops Apocalypse:

A State of Play Steven Fielding, 2014-04-24 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com A State of Play explores how the British have imagined their politics from the parliament worship of Anthony Trollope to the cynicism of The Thick of It In an account that mixes historical with political analysis Steven Fielding argues that fictional depictions of politics have played an important but insidious part in shaping how the British think about their democracy and have helped ventilate their many frustrations with Westminster He shows that dramas and fictions have also performed a significant role in the battle of ideas in a way undreamt of by those who draft party manifestos The book examines the work of overtly political writers have treated the subject discussing the novels of H G Wells the comedy series Yes Minister and the plays of David Hare However it also assesses how less obvious sources such as the films of George Formby the novels of Agatha Christie the Just William stories and situation comedies like Steptoe and Son have reflected on representative democracy A State of Play is an invaluable distinctive and engaging guide to a new way of thinking about Britain's political past and present Whoops Apocalypse (video), 1986 The Chronicles Of Narmo Caitlin Moran, 2013-10-24 Fifteen year old Morag Narmo really doesn't want to go to school any more She and her siblings would rather feed their heads into the waste disposal unit than do the academical So they are all stunned when their parents whisk them out of school and embark on a home schooling experiment But with five children two unruly pets and some extremely eccentric attitudes the educational experiment soon descends into chaos Witty razor sharp and laugh out loud funny The Chronicles of Narmo show us how before Caitlin Moran knew How to be a Woman she had to find out How to be a Girl The British Sitcom Spinoff Film Stephen Glynn, 2023-12-07 This book constitutes the first full volume dedicated to an academic analysis of theatrically released spinoff films derived from British radio and television sitcoms Regularly maligned as the nadir of British film production and marginalised as a last resort for the financially bereft industry during the 1970s this study demonstrates that the sitcom spinoff film has instead been a persistent and important presence in British cinema from the 1940s to the present day and includes occasional works with distinct artistic merit Alongside an investigation of the economic imperative underpinning these productions i.e the exploitation of proven product with a ready made audience it is argued that with a longevity stretching from Arthur Askey and his wartime Band Waggon 1940 to the crew of Kurupt FM and their recent People Just Do Nothing Big in Japan 2021 the British sitcom spinoff can be interpreted as following a full generic life cycle Starting with the formative stage where works from Hi Gang 1941 to I Only Arsked 1958 establish the genre's characteristics the spinoff genre moves to its classic stage where secure for form and content it enjoys considerable popular success with films like Till Death Us Do Part 1969 On the Buses 1971 The Likely Lads 1976 and Rising Damp 1980 the genre's revival since the late 1990s reveals a more parodic final stage with films like The League of Gentlemen's Apocalypse 2005 adopting a consciously self reflective mode It is also posited that the sitcom spinoff film is a viable source for social history with the often stereotypical representations of characters and events an often blatant ideological metonym for the concerns of wider British society notably in issues of class race gender and sexuality

Nuclear Movies Mick Broderick,1991 Fictional Presidential Films Sarah Miles Bolam & Thomas J. Bolam,2011-07-01 Fictional Presidential Films Hollywood's manner of making films its conventions applies especially to fictional presidential films allowing filmmakers to express their ideas that could not be done in traditional historical films Fictional Presidential Films offers a complete filmography of these two hundred plus films decade by decade since 1930 The main body of the work provides a brief summary of each decade along with a summary on the overall nature of films in which a fictional President appeared Each relevant film is then discussed with credits plot summary description of the presidential appearance and when possible an assessment of the presidential portrayal included The Fictional Female Presidency in Film, Television, and Literature Kathleen W. Taylor Kollman,2025-11-13 This book examines the ways in which popular culture has entertained the notion of a female U S presidency through portrayals in film television and literature dating back to the 1930s Private Eye ,1983 The A-Z of 1980s British Comedy Brian Carver,2025-02-10 The 1980s was a golden age for British comedy There were many sitcoms made with traditional series such as Yes Minister and Only Fools and Horses as well as new inventive shows such as The Young Ones A new style of alternative comedy created many memorable shows As well as sitcoms there were a huge number of sketch and stand up comedy shows both traditional and more radical in style Find out more about the huge range of comedy in Britain in 1980s with this book Televising "terrorism" Philip Schlesinger,Graham Murdock,Philip Ross Courtney Elliott,1983 Looks at how terrorism is portrayed in the British media both news and fictional television programs and discusses whether this coverage supports the government or gives undue influence to terrorist organizations Entertainers in British Films Denis Gifford,1998-06-10 Representing the first attempt to compile a complete catalog of the entertainers who appeared on film in Great Britain from the invention of the cinema in the mid 1890s to the present this innovative book covers more than 2 000 entertainers Each entry gives the entertainer's speciality a chronological listing of his/her films and the titles of the songs sung played or danced to Uniquely the catalog lists appearances in shorts and especially series of shorts such as Ace Cinemagazine Eve's Film Review and Pathe Pictorial as well as other prewar series of cinemags Newsreel performances are also included Attempting to compile the first complete catalog of the entertainers who appeared on film in Great Britain from the invention of cinema in the mid 1890s to the present this innovative reference book covers more than 2 000 entertainers including comedians singers musicians impressionists dancers and dance bands contortionists acrobats pop groups and pop stars and more Listed here are the complete filmographies for bygone entertainers such as Max Miller and Tommy Trinder music hall artists including Marie Lloyd and Harry Champion radio stars such as Richard Murdoch and Norman Long crooners from Al Bowlly to Donald Peers and a supporting cast of many more Each entry gives the entertainer's speciality a chronological listing of his/her films and the titles of the songs sung played or danced to Uniquely the catalog lists appearances in shorts especially series of shorts such as Ace Cinemagazine Eve s Film Review and Pathe Pictorial as well as other prewar series of cinemags Newsreel performances are also included Based on more than 30 years research by the man dubbed custodian of the nation s nostalgia The Sunday Times London this is a unique and comprehensive guide for all researchers concerned with the history of British film Film Writers Directory ,2000 Beyond the Fringe ... and Beyond Ronald Bergan,1989 On 22 August 1960 four university graduates put on a little amateur revue for the Edinburgh Festival and between them changed the face of British comedy for ever They were Peter Cook Dudley Moore Alan Bennett and Jonathan Miller Ronald Bergan s four part biography focuses a critical eye on the strangely assorted foursome Decanter ,1996 Screening the Novel Robert Giddings,Keith Selby,Chris Wensley,1990 The book takes as its theme the relationship between literature and the contemporary means of production and distribution collectively termed the media in particular film and television The intention of the book is to explore and evaluate the mutual opportunities and restrictions in this relationship In the grammar of our culture there seems to be an accepted opinion that print is superior in terms of cultural production to film radio or television that to read a book is somehow a higher cultural activity than seeing a play on television or seeing a film By the same token a novel is a superior work of art to film or television The longer perspective reveals that traditionally there always is a greater respect paid to the previous mode of literary production poetry was superior to drama poetic drama was superior to the novel and film attained cult and classic status initially over television British Cinema in the 1980's W. John Hill,1999 In recent years the role and identity of British cinema has been changing and it is these changes with which British Cinema in the 1980s is concerned It looks at the increasing domination of the world film industry by Hollywood and the response of British filmmaking to this the role of government and the increasingly close relationship between film and television It also examines the kinds of images British cinema produced in this period and how they relate to a shifting sense of British identity The book not only looks at the appeal of images of the past in the heritage film such as Howards End and films of Empire such as A Passage to India but also discusses the more questioning images of the present by the state of the nation film such as Letter to Brezhnev and My Beautiful Laundrette In doing so it explores how these films deal with issues of class gender and ethnicity and how these in turn connect to our understanding of the Britishness of British cinema British Cinema in the 1980s will become the definitive study of an important period of British filmmaking Bringing together a discussion of British society the British film industry and British films John Hill provides an accessible analysis of the main themes and issues characterizing British cinema of the time Ultimate DVD. ,2007 Acts of War Tony Howard,John Stokes,1996 For fifty years the theatre followed by television drama has explored the myths and the consequences of the states of war which have loomed in the background of British life This survey shows how succeeding generations of British playwrights have recognised war as a determining presence in the political consciousness of the nation In their treatment of military conflict dramatists invariably find themselves engaging with underlying issues of class of gender and of political authority Encyclopedia of Early Television Crime Fighters Everett Aaker,2006 Includes entries on various players who had a regular role in a crime or mystery series during the early era of television Entries include the player s real name family information education career preceding the series marriage children death dates and film and TV role credits TV Guide ,1998

web jan 19 2014 how to track a moving object in a live camera learn more about object tracking computer vision toolbox i use matlab code to turn on the camera it should track the moving object 2 persons are walking how to track it i use 2012a version motion based object detection and tracking in matlab - May 12 2023 web jan 29 2021 presented here is a simple guide in plain language for understanding and implementing matlab s motion based multiple object tracking algorithm so that you can detect and track moving objects in your own videos the algorithm is tested on a video where a scenario was staged and recorded from a hovering drone

multiple object tracking matlab simulink mathworks - Feb 26 2022

web multiple object tracking tracking is the process of locating a moving object or multiple objects over time in a video stream unlike object detection which is the process of locating an object of interest in a single frame tracking associates detections of an object across multiple frames zhouyifan233 movingobjdetector wami matlab github - Oct 05 2022 web moving object detection in wide area motion imagery matlab version moving object detection vehicles for wami images this code is the implementation for our paper detecting and tracking small moving objects in wide area motion imagery wami using convolutional neural networks cnns which has been accepted in 22nd computer vision with matlab for object detection and tracking - Dec 07 2022 web jan 29 2013 track single objects with the kanade lucas tomasi klt point tracking algorithm perform kalman filtering to predict the location of a moving object implement a motion based multiple object tracking system this webinar assumes some experience with matlab and image processing toolbox we will focus on the computer vision

motion based multiple object tracking matlab simulink - Aug 15 2023

web the problem of motion based object tracking can be divided into two parts detecting moving objects in each frame associating the detections corresponding to the same object over time the detection of moving objects uses a background subtraction algorithm based on gaussian mixture models

tracking and motion estimation matlab simulink mathworks - Jul 14 2023

web this toolbox includes motion estimation algorithms such as optical flow block matching and template matching these algorithms create motion vectors which can relate to the whole image blocks arbitrary patches or individual pixels

detecting and tracking moving objects matlab answers - Apr 30 2022 web jul 10 2015 answers 1 there are many different ways to detect and track moving objects kalman filter does assume either a constant velocity or a constant acceleration motion model however it also assumes system noise which is a way to account for the fact that the actual motion of an object does not exactly fit your model detection and tracking matlab simulink mathworks - Sep 04 2022 web object tracking consists of assigning a unique id to detected objects and tracking their movement across point cloud frames lidar toolbox includes detection and tracking workflows for vehicles road lanes and curbs

multiple object tracking tutorial matlab simulink mathworks - Jun 13 2023

web moving object detection and motion based tracking are important components of automated driver assistance systems such as adaptive cruise control automatic emergency braking and autonomous driving you can divide motion based object tracking into two parts detecting moving objects in each frame tracking the moving objects from
