He's my best friend's son. He's twenty years younger. And he's the only thing I can't control. Silas Moore is a man of discipline. As a high-powered architect and half of a billion-dollar business partnership, he doesn't make mistakes. He certainly doesn't lust after the one person who is strictly off-limits. Leo Thorne is chaotic, beautiful, and vibrant. Everything Silas has denied himself for decades. He's also twenty-one years old and the son of Silas's business partner and best friend. When a summer merger forces them together at a secluded lake house, Silas plans to bury himself in work. But Leo has other ideas. He's done being the kid in Silas's eyes, and he's determined to break through Silas's iron-clad walls. A sudden storm traps them indoors, and the tension that has been simmering for years finally boils over. But giving in to the heat is the easy part. The morning after threatens to destroy the friendship and the business Silas built his life around. Silas has to make a choice: protect the safety of the life he knows or take the terrifying leap for the love he never thought he'd find.

The Untouchable Summer is a high-heat standalone MM romance featuring the Dad's Best Friend and Age Gap tropes, forced proximity, and a hard-won Happy Ever After.
