

William Rowe "The Problem of Evil and Some Varieties of Atheism"

Does the Existence of Evil Prove that God Does Not Exist?

- God's Attributes
  - Omniscient
  - Omnipotent
  - Wholly good
- Clarification about "evil" in the name of the argument
  - "evil" here just means bad situation.
  - Example: your book falls in a mud puddle
    - It's a bad situation.
    - Technically, it would count as evil.
- Basic idea of the argument
  - Would a good person watch someone drown when they could easily save them?

Argument from Evil (P. 92)

- 1) There is intense suffering that an omnipotent, omniscient being could have prevented without thereby losing some greater good or permitting some evil equally bad or worse (premise 1)
  - a. Defending premise 1
    - i. Innocent suffering
      1. Example: fawn dying in a forest fire
    - ii. Reasonable conclusion: pointless
      1. Can't prove that nothing is gained/prevented.
        - a. But it is reasonable to think so.
      2. Seems God could have...
        - a. Made a world with no earthquakes.
        - b. Made a world with less reason for conflict.
        - c. Made a world with no diseases.
- 2) An omniscient, wholly good being would prevent any intense suffering it could, unless it could not do so without thereby losing some greater good or permitting some evil equally bad or worse (premise 2)
  - a. Defending premise 2
    - i. Judging one who lets bad things happen.
      1. If anyone allows intense suffering to happen
        - a. Option 1: they're bad.
          - i. They should have stopped it.
        - b. Option 2: they're not bad.
          - i. They have good reason to allow it.
            1. Example: excuse
              - a. Suffering: someone drowning in lake
              - b. Reason to let it happen: no boat, can't swim.
