Peter Walker Peter Walker,Linda L. Jewell,1990 Landscape and Authority in the Early Modern World Stephen H. Whiteman,2023-04-25 Courts and societies across the early modern Eurasian world were fundamentally transformed by the physical technological and conceptual developments of their era Evolving forms of communication greatly expanded mobility the spread of scientific knowledge and the emergence of an increasingly integrated global economy all affected how states articulated and projected visions of authority into societies that in turn perceived and responded to these visions in often contrasting terms Landscape both reflected and served as a vehicle for these transformations as the relationship between the land and its imagination and consumption became a fruitful site for the negotiation of imperial identities within and beyond the precincts of the court In Landscape and Authority in the Early Modern World contributors explore the role of landscape in the articulation and expression of imperial identity and the mediation of relationships between the court and its many audiences in the early modern world Nine studies focused on the geographical areas of East and South Asia the Islamic world and Europe illuminate how early modern courts and societies shaped and were shaped by the landscape including both physical sites such as gardens palaces cities and hunting parks and conceptual ones such as those of frontiers idealized polities and the cosmos The collected essays expand the meaning and potential of landscape as a communicative medium in this period by putting an array of forms and subjects in dialogue with one another including not only unique expressions such as gardens paintings and manuscripts but also the products of rapidly developing commercial technologies of reproduction especially print The volume invites a deeper and more nuanced understanding of the complexity with which early modern states constructed and deployed different modes of landscape for different audiences and environments Contributors Robert Batchelor Seyed Mohammad Ali Emrani John Finlay Caroline Fowler Katrina Grant Finola O Kane Anton Schweizer Larry Silver Stephen H Whiteman The Western Architect, 1908 Abstracting the Landscape Eliza Pennypacker, Kristi Ann Wormhoudt, 1990 Re-inventing Gardens Kyung-Jin Zoh, 1994 Landscape Journal, 1997 Regionalism Jean Suyul Chu, 1989 American Art Directory 1997-98 Reed Reference Publishing, R R Bowker Publishing, 1997 Annual Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 1989 Eastern Resonances in Early Modern England Claire Gallien, Ladan Niayesh, 2019-09-12 The concept of resonance collapses the binary between subject and object perceiver and perceived evoking a sound or image that is prolonged and augmented by making contact with another surface This collection uses resonance as an innovative framework for understanding the circulation of people and objects between England and its multiple Asian Easts Moving beyond Saidian Orientalism to engage with ongoing critical conversations in the fields of connected history material culture and thing theory it offers a vibrant range of case studies that consider how meanings accrue and shift through circulation and interconnection from the sixteenth to the early nineteenth century Spanning centuries of traveling translations narratives myths practices and other cultural phenomena Eastern Resonances in Early Modern England puts forth resonance not just as a metaphor but a mode of investigation Designing Landscape Architectural Education Rosalea Monacella, Bridget Keane, 2022-09-09 No single project or endeavour is immune to the issues that the climate crisis brings The climate crisis encompasses a broad register of symptoms increased global temperatures and sea level rise droughts and extreme bushfire events salinification and desertification of fertile land and the list goes on It reveals and amplifies complex causal relationships that are inherently present and traverse scales sectors and communities divulging a range of impacts and inequalities This publication asks designers and academic practitioners to describe their own work through an ecological lens and then to articulate design approaches for developing new practices in landscape architecture teaching Designing Landscape Architectural Education Studio Ecologies for Unpredictable Futures the Landscape Architecture Design Studio Companion serves as a resource for academic practitioners in the preparation and delivery of design research studios and students seeking guidance for design methodologies as a part of their landscape architectural education It draws on the manifold issues of the climate crisis as a set of drivers to examine the utilisation of a range of innovative design approaches to address the current and future priorities of the discipline The landscape architecture discipline is evolving rapidly to respond to both a broadening and intensification of changes in the environmental social and political conditions These changing conditions require innovation that extend the core competencies of landscape architects This book addresses two fundamental questions what are the design competencies required of landscape architects to equip them to deal with the complexities brought forth by contemporary society and as a result how could we design the future design studio
