

How to FENG SHUI your home

KITCHEN:

A space for warmth and socializing

Color

Use a warm accent color like yellow to promote warmth and socialization during meal prep

The kitchen is the top feng shui priority, since it controls the flow of nourishment and happiness to your family

ENCOURAGE POSITIVE ENERGY by layering several types of light fixtures

Get rid of extra kitchen gadgets. Your countertops should be free of clutter

Grow a fresh herb garden on your windowsill, and make sure your kitchen space is lit with natural light

BEDROOM:

Relax into sensuality

Color

Try a calming green or chocolate brown bedroom to encourage a mixture of relaxation and sensuality

Get rid of underbed storage to promote a flow of energy as you sleep

Place your bed away from a direct line with the door, and center it with two bedside tables

Banish unnecessary stimulation, like TVs or computers

Pick art wisely: Only use pieces that you want replicated in your own life

LIVING ROOM:

Feel cozy, close and intimate

Color

Paint with neutral colors for coziness, and liven the space with pops of red for wealth

Place your largest sofa firmly against a wall for stability, and your other seating by windows

The room should not be higher than your dining area

The room should be a normal shape, and neither too big nor too small

Room decor should encourage liveliness, so use living plants, cut flowers and light-reflecting mirrors in your design

Cut the clutter — especially kids' toys — by using built-in storage and shelving wisely

DINING ROOM:

Nourish your body and relationships

Color

Use sky blue and cream accent colors for tranquility and nutrition

Multiple textures are key! Use high-quality table linens and curtains for sound absorption and intimacy

A CRYSTAL CHANDELIER gives light, but is dim enough to encourage a slower-paced meal

Dining room tables are best in round, oval or octagonal shapes. Placed in the center of the room

Two doors through the dining room promote a positive flow of energy

Hang landscape art and mirrors in the dining room

ENTRYWAY:

The place of vitality and prosperity

Color

Consider white walls and bold colors like red for an entryway that pops with vitality

The entryway should have some "weight" to it; a strongly colored area rug or hearty side table will do

Hang a mirror — away from a direct line with the door — to make the foyer welcoming

The front door should be the largest and grandest door in your home

Use bright lighting within a few feet of the doorway

Make sure your front door opens completely to welcome energy and prosperity into your home
