Joseph F. Fletcher

Situation Ethics:

Situation Ethics Joseph F. Fletcher, 1966 A manifesto of individual freedom and individual responsibility elaborated within an ethic of love which extricates modern man from rigid archaic rules and codes Proclaiming that any moral system is too shallow and petty to provide answers the author outlines a methodology for decision making which presupposes individual responsibility and declares that every man must decide for himself what is right Rising above any creed this renewed morality of loving concern is based on agape the love of which only God is capable but which every man must endeavor to emulate Cover notes Situation Ethics Joseph F. Situationism and the New Morality Robert L. Cunningham, 1970 Situation Ethics Joseph Fletcher, 1997-07-01 Igniting a firestorm of controversy upon its publication in 1966 Joseph Fletcher's Situation Ethics was hailed by many as a much needed reformation of morality and as an invitation to anarchy by others Proposing an ethic of loving concern Fletcher suggests that certain acts such as lying premarital sex adultery or even murder might be morally right depending on the circumstances Hotly debated on television in magazines and newspapers in churches and in the classroom Fletcher's provocative thesis remains a powerful force in contemporary discussions of morality The Library of Theological Ethics series focuses on what it means to think theologically and ethically It presents a selection of important and otherwise unavailable texts in easily accessible form Volumes in this series will enable sustained dialogue with predecessors though reflection on classic works in the field Situation Ethics: True or False? John Warwick Montgomery, Joseph Fletcher, 2017-03-11 This riveting philosophical debate pits Christian apologist Dr John Warwick Montgomery against the situation ethicist Joseph Fletcher to grapple with the absoluteness of moral principles Ethical Studies Robert A. Bowie, 2004 A detailed treatment of ethics preparing students for the methods of study expected in higher education Covering the major western theories and their religious connections as well as a series of pertinent contemporary ethical issues This second edition has been substantially updated to provide comprehensive coverage of the Religious Ethics requirements of all major awarding bodies Josef Fuchs on Natural Law Mark Graham, 2002-10-25 Appointed by Pope John XXIII to the Pontifical Commission on Population Family and Birth Fuchs ultimately found himself disappointed in his three years of service and spent the next thirty years exploring a broad array of issues pivotal to a reconstruction of Roman Catholic natural law theory This is the first full length analysis of Fuchs s efforts Beginning historically by looking at Fuchs s writings and beliefs before the Pontifical Commission appointment including his defense of natural law during the situation ethics debates of the 50s and 60s the concept of personal salvation and the status of nature and human nature Graham moves to the intellectual conversion that inspired Fuchs to reconsider his concepts following the commission appointment From there Graham engages in a sustained critique of Fuchs s natural theory addressing both the strengths and weaknesses to be found there and suggest possible avenues of development that would make a positive contribution to the ongoing quest to rehabilitate the Roman Catholic natural law theory that continues to dominate the landscape of moral theology today

Old Texts Through New Eyes Dallas R. Burdette,2009-03 Christians frequently slaughter freedom of conscience with fanatical dogmatism It is not uncommon for various fellowships of God s people to lay an embargo on freedom in favor of their own exclusive doctrine or understanding of the Scriptures One objective of this book is to set Christians free from sectarianism The views set forth in this book are not bound by party ties It is my desire that these writings will assist Christians in their desire to escape the prevailing forms of radicalism manifested by so many sincere and devout believers In my fifty eight years of preaching and teaching I have witnessed that men and women for the most part are afraid of freedom This volume examines the philosophy of what we teach is true and what others teach is false Among some bodies of believers freedom of investigation is rigidly shackled The chapters in this book seek to defuse the attitude that the one who refuses to comply with the status quo is no longer a brother in Christ The diversity of the chapters in this book refutes the prevailing opinions of many Christians my opinion is the only sound one flawless and incontestable Dallas Burdette has been a serious student teacher and preacher of the Bible for fifty eight years supporting himself for many years as an agent for AFLAC He has written numerous articles for religious journals as well as many essays and sermons which are available on his website He has developed a keen interest in promoting unity among God s people through a more accurate reading of the Word He has degrees from Amridge University formerly Southern Christian University where he also was Director of Extended Learning for five years He holds the Doctor of Ministry degree 1999 from Erskine Theological Seminary
