Untaught Lessons Philip Wesley Jackson,1992 Untaught Lessons aims to explore new ways of thinking about teaching learning and the school experience Philip W Jackson investigates what students learn and what teachers teach not in terms of explicit curriculum but in terms of the implicit long term influences teachers have on students He then examines the effect teaching has on teachers how the teaching experience influences the evolution of each teacher s sense of self Deliver Wen-Szu Lin,2021 Moving Lessons Janice Ross,2012-11 Moving Lessons is an insightful and sophisticated look at the origins and influence of dance in American universities focusing on Margaret H Doubler who established the first university courses and the first degree program in dance at the University of Wisconsin Dance educator and historian Janice Ross shows that H Doubler 1889-1982 was both emblematic of her time and an innovator who made deep imprints in American culture An authentic New Woman H Doubler emerged from a sheltered female Victorian world to take action in the public sphere She changed the way Americans thought not just about female physicality but also about higher education for women Ross brings together many discourses from dance history pedagogical theory women s history feminist theory American history and the history of the body in intelligent exciting and illuminating ways and adds a new chapter to each of them She shows how H Doubler like Isadora Duncan and other modern dancers helped to raise dance in the eyes of the middle class from its despised status as lower class entertainment and dangerous social interaction to a serious enterprise Taking a nuanced critical approach to the history of women s bodies and their representations Moving Lessons fills a very large gap in the history of dance education The Untaught Lessons of Teaching S.
