

A group of people is walking away from the camera on a dirt path that leads into a vast, arid desert landscape. The scene is captured during the "golden hour" of sunset, with the sun low on the horizon, casting long, dark shadows of the people onto the path. The sky is filled with soft, wispy clouds, and the overall color palette is dominated by warm, golden-brown and orange tones. The path is flanked by sparse desert vegetation, including small bushes and cacti. In the distance, low mountains or hills are visible under the bright sky.

There are those who think they have done things so terrible that God could not possibly love them. I know this is true because I was one of them. I used to feel that God had given up on me, but there's a problem with feelings like that. Not only do they hinder you from coming to Him, but they can obscure the truth of what God has declared in His Word. It is my profound prayer that as you study how God has demonstrated His love for us, you can put your fears and misconceptions aside. As is true in every area of life, a true understanding of God's Word will set the captive free. The Second Mile Mark Wilson Stockman, 2016-11-23 This book is dedicated to those who feel they have gone beyond the limits of God's love and forgiveness and is written for believers and unbelievers alike. When Iago says about Desdemona that she holds it a vice in her goodness not to do more than is requested, he lays his discriminating finger on a trait of character not ordinarily worked up in the systems of ethics. Nowhere does he better justify his own comment on himself: "I am nothing if not critical." And it is precisely this trait of character on which Iago, with his devilish ingenuity, lighted for his evil purpose that Jesus made the crown of the moral life. The distinctively Christian quality is to hold it a vice in our goodness not to do more than is requested. Going the Second Mile Mel Blackaby, 2006-09-15 Less Effort More Joy What is the second mile It s the difference between living as a good person and enjoying life as a child of God When you do your best for someone you go the first mile When God does His best through you you experience the second mile This can happen only when you let Christ in you take over and empower you to accomplish what is impossible by your natural abilities While others see you on the first mile they see Christ on the second This miraculous Christian life will overwhelm you with more time energy and peace You can t help but freely give more away Because God does not reward your duty He blesses your relationship with His Son It s time to experience radical living It s time to enter into the second mile Cease to Strive If someone forces you to go one mile Jesus said go with him two miles Matthew 5 41 Are you obligated to serve regardless of a mediocre attitude Are you supposed to be exhausted So God Can Thrive Author Mel Blackaby carefully unfolds the true meaning of Christ s words so you will see that it s not about you While the world sees your good works on the first mile they see Christ s power working through you on the second He carries the burden and takes you beyond yourself First mile living is cramped and unsatisfying When you stride beyond it chains fall off and freedom ensues True rest fulfillment joy and other surprising treasures become yours when you dare to embark upon the second mile Story Behind the Book As a pastor in North America I am amazed by how many Christians struggle with depression anxiety and stress The burdens of life overwhelm them and they pull back from serving the Lord thinking they can t take any more pressure While visiting Mozambique I went to the home of a native pastor who also works a secular job to support his life his church and another mission church I was shocked at how little he had He was giving his all to the Lord and existing on the bare minimum As I consider his challenges I am struck by his contagious smile He has taken the yoke of Jesus and learned from Him he has found rest for his soul and lives abundantly he is walking in the second mile I want God s children everywhere to know the same joy and privilege that comes from serving God Mel Blackaby
