Marxism, Revolution and Utopia Herbert Marcuse,2014-03-26 This collection assembles some of Herbert Marcuse s most important work and presents for the first time his responses to and development of classic Marxist approaches to revolution and utopia as well as his own theoretical and political perspectives This sixth and final volume of Marcuse s collected papers shows Marcuse s rejection of the prevailing twentieth century Marxist theory and socialist practice which he saw as inadequate for a thorough critique of Western and Soviet bureaucracy and the development of his revolutionary thought towards a critique of the consumer society Marcuse s later philosophical perspectives on technology ecology and human emancipation sat at odds with many of the classic tenets of Marx s materialist dialectic which placed the working class as the central agent of change in capitalist societies As the material from this volume shows Marcuse was not only a theorist of Marxist thought and practice in the twentieth century but also proves to be an essential thinker for understanding the neoliberal phase of capitalism and resistance in the twenty first century A comprehensive introduction by Douglas Kellner and Clayton Pierce places Marcuse s philosophy in the context of his engagement with the main currents of twentieth century philosophy while also providing important analyses of his anticipatory theorization of capitalist development through a neoliberal restructuring of society The volume concludes with an afterword by Peter Marcuse The Lost Debate William David Jones,1999 Brings to light critiques of modern tyranny written by German socialist intellectuals before and during World War II about the definition origins nature and means of overcoming totalitarianism Science, Politics and Social Practice Robert Sonn  Cohen, Kostas Gavroglu, John Stachel, Marx W. Wartofsky, 1995-02-28 In three volumes a distinguished group of scholars from a variety of disciplines in the natural and social sciences the humanities and the arts contribute essays in honor of Robert S Cohen on the occasion of his 70th birthday The range of the essays as well as their originality and their critical and historical depth pay tribute to the extraordinary scope of Professor Cohen s intellectual interests as a scientist philosopher and a humanist and also to his engagement in the world of social and political practice In Science Politics and Social Practice Volume II of Essays in Honor of Robert S Cohen an international group of scholars philosophers sociologists historians and political scientists discuss issues at the cutting edge of contemporary social and political thought and its bearing on science Several essays discuss the relations of Marxism to science and specifically to the philosophies of science of Carnap and Popper as well as Soviet Marxism and the effects of Stalinism on Soviet science There are also essays on the philosophy and methodology of the social sciences on questions of method and aim in historical narrative on the issue of cultural relativism and more

Participatory Democracy, Science and Technology K. Rogers, 2015-12-11 Taking insights from the philosophy of science and technology theories of participatory democracy and Critical Theory the author tackles and explores how democratic participation in scientific research and technological innovation could be possible as a deliberative means of improving the rational basis for the development of modern society

The Cold War in the 1950s Nicolas Lewkowicz, 2024-03-12 The book claims that the United States and the Soviet Union attained the mastery of the international order by projecting universalist values that responded to the particularist markers of the domestic order that was generated in the 1950s The geopolitical orientation adopted by the superpowers in the 1950s was shaped by the way in which their societies developed politically socially and economically in the 1950s The main argument of this book is that the quest for the mastery of the international order that informed superpower relations in the 1950s was guided by the need to respond to the local circumstances that emerged in the United States and the Soviet Union The particularist markers that arose in the 1950s led to the establishment of a geopolitical project underpinned by certain universalist values that could be applied in order to build the superpowers sphere of influence
