Soviet Strategy and Islam Alexandre A. Bennigsen, 1989-06-18 A study of the origins evolution and current state of the Soviet use of its official Islamic establishment as a means of increasing its influence among Muslim elites in the Islamic world especially in the Persian Gulf Case studies and recommendations for US policy are included Soviet Strategy and Islam Alexandre Bennigsen, 1989 Muslims of the Soviet Empire Alexandre Bennigsen, S. Enders Wimbush, 1986 Muslim National Communism in the Soviet Union Alexandre A. Bennigsen, S. Enders Wimbush, 1980-09-15 In this study Bennigsen and Wimbush trace the development of the doctrine of national communism in Central Asia and the Caucasus At the heart of this doctrine as elaborated by the Volga Tatar Mir Said Sultan Galiev was the concept of proletarian nations as opposed to the traditional notion of a working class With such ideological innovations Sultan Galiev and his contemporaries were able to reconcile Marxist nationalisms and Islam and devise an Eastern strategy whereby the national revolution was to be spread The authors show that the ideas of Muslim national communism persist in the land of their birth and have spread to such developing societies as China Algeria and Indonesia This doctrine is an important factor in the ideological split and increasing tensions between industrial and nonindustrial nations East and West and now North and South which grip the world communist movement Papers from a Conference on Afghanistan and Soviet Strategies for the Muslim

Soviet Strategy in the Middle East George W. Breslauer, 2015-07-16 Few regions of the world are as politically turbulent as the Middle East and nowhere is the potential for superpower conflict greater How does the Soviet Union view the Middle East conflict Can the USSR play a constructive role in the peace process In this volume first published in 1990 these questions and others central to an understanding of Soviet strategy in the region are addressed Previous analysts of Soviet Middle Eastern relations have tended to emphasize either the cooperative or the competitive aspects of Soviet behaviour Breslauer instead offers the multidimensional concept of collaborative competition to describe the mixed motives ambivalence and sometimes conflicting perspectives that have informed Soviet strategy in the region In such an unstable environment this strategy of collaborative competition has in turn encouraged approach avoidance behaviour for example while the Soviets may seek to moderate their radical allies they remain fearful that these allies once moderated might defect to US patronage Under Gorbachev the Kremlin continues to pursue this same strategy but with increased attention to improving collaboration redefining the nature of the competition and easing the approach avoidance dilemma Breslauer argues that these changes could lead to more flexible Soviet behaviour in the region This volume combines new in depth research on Soviet policy with new interpretations including insights drawn from relevant theories of international relations

Steeves, 1988 On antisemitism see the following entries Turkey, Islamists and Democracy Yıldız Atasoy, 2005-07-29 Trailblazing study that radically re examines political Islam Political Islam in Turkey has been headline news following the Istanbul bombings Much needed study of the economic dimensions of political Islam Turkey Islamists and Democracy is the story of Islam s engagement with the reorganization of the global economy Yıldız Atasoy examines the development of political Islam in Turkey within the context of the changing balance of domestic and international forces in the world economy and shows how it has taken on a highly sophisticated cosmopolitan edge By examining the incorporation of Islam into the existing relations of the Turkish state from the late Ottoman Empire to the present day the author demonstrates how political Islam interacts with the global restructuring of classes states and political actors Atasoy challenges the view of Islamist politics as an anti Modern anti Western force that is fundamentally opposed to the global economy and instead argues that political Islam is cosmopolitan and embedded in processes which incorporate Western modernity into local cultural practices Uzbekistan Reuel R. characterizes this belief structure as identical to that of Europe's medieval millenarians and apocalyptics arguing that both jihadis and their European cousins shared in a Gnostic ideology a God given mission endowed the Elect with supernatural powers and placed them above the common law of mankind Although the ideology of jihad is essentially Islamic Murawiec traces the political technologies used by modern jihad to the Bolsheviks Their doctrines of terror as a system of rule were appropriated by radical Islam through multiple lines of communication This book brings history anthropology and theology to bear to understand the mind of jihad that has declared war on the West and the world
