Space Below My Feet:

Space Below My Feet Gwen Moffat, 2013-11-07 A classic mountaineering memoir by one of the UK's foremost female climbers A story of climbing and compulsive love of mountains magnificent OBSERVER In 1945 when Gwen Moffat was in her twenties she deserted from her post as a driver and dispatch rider in the Army and went to live rough in Wales and Cornwall climbing and living on practically nothing She hitch hiked her way around travelling from Skye to Chamonix and many places in between with all her possessions on her back although these amounted to little more than a rope and a sleeping bag When the money ran out she worked as a forester went winkle picking on the Isle of Skye acted as the helmsman of a schooner and did a stint as an artist's model And always there were the mountains drawing her away from a proper job Throughout this unique story there are acutely observed accounts of mountaineering exploits as Moffat tackles the toughest climbs and goes on to become Britain's leading female climber and the first woman to qualify as a mountain guide
