Space Football:

What We Think About When We Think About Football Simon Critchley, 2017-11-02 What do we think about when we think about football Football is about so many things memory history place social class gender especially masculinity but increasingly femininity too family identity tribal identity national identity the nature of groups It is essentially collaborative even socialist yet it exists in a sump of greed corruption capitalism and autocracy Philosopher Simon Critchley attempts to make sense of it all and to establish a system of aesthetics even poetics to show what is beautiful in the beautiful game He explores too how the experience of watching football opens a particular dimension in time how its magic wards off oblivion how its dramas play out national identity and non identity how we spectators watching football with tragic pensiveness participate in the play And of course as a football fan he writes about his heroes and villains about Zidane and Cruyff Clough and Revie Shankly and Klopp
