

The Most Spoken Languages (Besides English & Spanish)

IN NEW YORK CITY

More than 100 years ago, New York's Ellis Island was the gateway for those seeking a new life in the United States. Today, the city stands tall as one of the world's great megacities, home to new arrivals from all over the world and generations of settled immigrant communities.

Our analysis of U.S. Census data shows that Chinese is the third-most spoken language in 15 of the city's 55 districts. According to the Asian American Foundation, the city's Chinese cohort grew by 7.6% between 2015 and 2020, despite an overall population.

Methodology: We analyzed the detailed household language data collected by the U.S. Census Bureau to find the most spoken language besides English and Spanish in every district in New York City.
