Sacred Gardens and Landscapes Michel Conan,2007 Studies of rituals in sacred gardens and landscapes offer tantalizing insights into the significance of gardens and landscapes in the societies of India ancient Greece Pre Columbian Mexico medieval Japan post Renaissance Europe and America Sacred gardens and landscapes engaged their visitors into three specific modes of agency as anterooms spurring encounters with the netherworld as journeys through mystical lands and as a means of establishing a sense of locality metaphorically rooting the dweller s own identity in a well defined part of the material world Each section of this book is devoted to one of these forms of agency Together the essays reveal a profound cultural significance of gardens previously overlooked by studies of garden styles Historical Memory in Greece,

1821-1930 Christina Koulouri,2022-08-19 This book presents a social and cultural history of collective memory in modern Greece during the first century of state independence contributing to the debate over the relationship between memory and identity It discusses how modern Greek society commemorated its distant and recent pasts both real and imagined namely antiquity Byzantium the Greek Revolution and the Asia Minor Catastrophe how cultural memory was shaped by the various war experiences victory defeat mass death and mourning refugeedom and how memory politics became arenas of social and political strife Historical painting monuments historical pageantry tableaux vivants national anniversaries performances of ancient drama and revivals of ancient games are analyzed as instances where the past was visualized represented performed and consumed An explosion in public history has taken place over the last decades around the world with a veritable flood of commemorations anniversaries and memory wars As more and more social groups claim the right to remember public discourse and polemics have arisen at the same time that traumatic memory has become a field of international academic research In the arena of public history historical memory is being constructed through the sentimental irrational reception of mythological narratives told through images Historical Association Pamphlets Historical Association (Great Britain),1909
