Tables For One A Spanish Journal:

Tables for One Robert D. Johnson, 2003 Just how much can life get in the way of writing a novel Plenty for the protagonist of Tables for One Holed up in Spain amid a culture and language he scarcely understands trying to finish the book he began a decade ago the distractions are endless exhausting and frequently hilarious People take him under their wing without much success His nerves are jangled by the noise of Spain His stomach rebels often and urgently usually in embarrassing circumstances Meanwhile the unfinished outline of the novel sits like a silent accusation in his garret He finds that often the only reasonable recourse is to take a walk to board a train to investigate some new aspect of Spain Tables for One is about the maddening impossible complications of daily life encountered in a foreign land by a hapless would be novelist Deliciously quirky and insightful it takes readers on a Spanish sojourn and into the psyche of a man with a most unusual case of writer s block
