Understanding Global News A Critical Introduction:

Understanding Global News Jaap van Ginneken, 1998-01-23 Using the enormous number of available examples and a range of theoretical perspectives the author demonstrates the ways in which the news media are able to manipulate an individual's perception of the world

Understanding Global News Jaap van Ginneken, 1998-01-23 A lively and critical introduction to the news media this book has been written specifically for media students and trainee journalists

Understanding Global News invites the reader to explore contemporary journalistic practice and questions the assumption that the media provide a mere window on the world Challenging the often unquestioned notions of media objectivity the author turns the classic questions Who What When and Why onto the news media By employing a range of theoretical perspectives and a large variety of examples the author demonstrates the way in which our perceptions of the world are constructed by the news media

International News in the 21st Century Chris Paterson, Annabelle Sreberny, 2004 In the aftermath of September 11 the nature of international news has resumed a central place in media debates and political analysis In the first collection of its kind influential journalists and scholars probe the future of international news Topics include the conglomerates ethnocentric imbalances in news reporting the rise of non Anglo news channels approaches for reconstructing the international news agenda the impacts of new technologies of production and diffusion international news rhetoric and audiences imagination of the global and their perceptions of international news coverage In a dialogue that is both descriptive and prescriptive this book begins an encounter between media practitioners activists and academics constituencies that have tended to talk past each other but are now beginning to find some shared concerns

Television Courtroom Broadcasting Effects Paul Lambert, 2013-07-05 Court and policy makers have increasingly had to deal with and sometimes even embrace technology from podcasts to the Internet Televised courtroom broadcasting especially remains an issue The debate surrounding the US Supreme Court and federal courts as well as the great disparity between different forms of television courtroom broadcasting rages on What are the effects of television courtroom broadcasting Does research support the arguments for or against Despite three Supreme Court cases on television courtroom broadcasting the common thread between the cases has not been highlighted The Supreme Court in these cases maintains a common theme there is not a sufficient body of research on the effects of televising courtroom proceedings to resolve the debate in a confident manner

Blaming the Victim Jairo Lugo-Ocando, 2014-12-20 Poverty it seems is a constant in today's news usually the result of famine exclusion or conflict In Blaming the Victim Jairo Lugo-Ocando sets out to deconstruct and reconsider the variety of ways in which the global news media misrepresent and decontextualise the causes and consequences of poverty worldwide The result is that the fundamental determinant of poverty inequality is removed from their accounts The book asks many biting questions When and how does poverty become newsworthy How does ideology come into play when determining the ways in which poverty is constructed in newsrooms and how do the resulting narratives frame the issue And why do so many journalists and news editors tend to obscure the structural causes of poverty In analysing the processes of news production and presentation around the world Lugo Ocando reveals that the news makers agendas are often as problematic as the geopolitics they seek to represent This groundbreaking study reframes the ways in which we can think and write about the enduring global injustice of poverty Your Country, Our War Katherine A. Brown,2019-02-01 Based on extensive fieldwork in Afghanistan and eight years of interviews this book reviews the dynamics between Afghan and U S journalists and the global diplomatic power of the American press within the context of the post 9 11 era
