

NIXON RESIGNS

"I have never been a quitter . . . but as president I must put the interest of America first."

Ford watched an interview at his suburban Alexandria, Va., home, then stepped outside and pledged his best efforts for "what's good for America and what's good for the world."

Ford announced that Henry A. Kissinger will remain as secretary of state (Page 2) and said that he hoped they will work "in the pursuit of peace as we have achieved in the past."

Nixon had said he hopes world peace will be a lasting monument to his 2½ years in the White House. And Ford said Nixon "made one of the great personal sacrifices for the country and one of the finest
