We The Condemned:

The Execution of God Jeff Hood, 2017-09-12 We kill We kill each other We kill God The altar of the death chamber is open the hour of execution upon us Is there salvation amidst the horror of the death penalty We must save to get saved We must save our God How will we encounter the execution of God Will we save or will we kill In this stunning fusion of biblical interpretation and memoir radical theologian of mercy Jeff Hood takes us on a unique spiritual journey into the heart of the death penalty The Execution of God is a powerful invitation to encounter God in the last place we expect divinity to dwell on the gurney The Execution of God will invite you to re examine your belief in the ultimate punishment and consider How the death penalty kills our relationship with God The idea that the divine image of God dwells in those on death row How we cannot be both people of love and people of murder How our cultural obsession with violence harms our spiritual life How to stop the killing and join the work of abolition and restoration

In the Penal Colony Franz Kafka, 2017-04-19 In the Penal Colony is a short story by Franz Kafka written in German in October 1914 revised in November 1918 and first published in October 1919 The story is set in an unnamed penal colony Internal clues and the setting on an island suggest Octave Mirbeau's The Torture Garden as an influence As in some of Kafka's other writings the narrator in this story seems detached from or perhaps numbed by events that one would normally expect to be registered with horror In the Penal Colony describes the last use of an elaborate torture and execution device that carves the sentence of the condemned prisoner on his skin before letting him die all in the course of twelve hours As the plot unfolds the reader learns more and more about the machine including its origin and original justification The story focuses on the Explorer who is encountering the brutal machine for the first time Everything about the machine and its purpose is told to him by the Officer The Soldier and the Condemned who is unaware that he has been sentenced to die placidly watch from nearby The Officer tells of the religious epiphany the executed experience in their last six hours in the machine Eventually it becomes clear that the use of the machine and its associated process of justice the accused is always instantly found guilty and the law he has broken is inscribed on his body as he slowly dies over a period of 12 hours has fallen out of favor with the current Commandant The Officer is nostalgic regarding the torture machine and the values that were initially associated with it As the last proponent of the machine he strongly believes in its form of justice and the infallibility of the previous Commandant who designed and built the device In fact the Officer carries its blueprints with him and is the only person who can properly decipher them no one else is allowed to handle these documents

The Concept of Service Quality in Commercial Practice Amelikeh Confidence E. N.,2020-07-30 Commercial Practice is the work done for the earning acquisition and ownership of existence and within existence What one acquires the one is said to own resulting in the application of ownership to anything at all acquirable including the slave however the slave is held in possession disowned and hence cannot be said to be owned We cannot accurately say that one owns a slave nor that a slave has owner when the slave is held disowned The disowned thing has no owner The application of ownership to the slave has brought difficulty in telling the relationship between parent and child husband and wife employer and employee and citizen and state for instance as a person being owned sounds as the person being a slave We have redeemed the reality of ownership There are things one can own and things one cannot own although acquirable therefore there are things one has the Right to acquire and things one has no Right to acquire If you cannot own it and you acquire it then you have stolen it rendering you a criminal as theft is a crime Learn Commercial Practice it is the legitimate method of acquiring and possessing and ownership
