The Volunteer Soldier of America John Alexander Logan, 1887      All in Line Saul Steinberg, 2024-11-19 A new edition of Saul Steinberg's memoir via drawing of his escape from fascist Europe and of his transition into life as an American capturing absurdities, delights and the grim realities of war along the way To escape fascist Europe the artist Saul Steinberg drew his way to America He made it to New York in 1942 already in contract with The New Yorker but was soon called up to serve in the US Naval Reserve in World War II This book All In Line is a memoir via drawing of this key time in Steinberg's life when he began to find his line and his way as an American In works for The New Yorker and others Steinberg depicted delightful absurdities and quiet moments a painter saws a long canvas into smaller sellable portions a child draws a gigantic face on the sidewalk to the confusion of passersby American soldiers stroll through exquisitely detailed streets in China India North Africa and Italy But Steinberg didn't shy away from the grim realities of his era There are withering anti fascist drawings as well as glimpses of war skies crowded with bombers families on the run army convoys broken down jeeps and smoldering battlefields This new edition of All in Line includes an introduction by cartoonist Liana Finck an afterword by Steinberg scholar Iain Topliss on the making of the book and full captions with notes It will resonate with both lifelong Steinberg fans as well as those who are encountering his work for the first time      The Mass Market for History Paintings in Seventeenth-Century Amsterdam Angela Jager, 2025-10-01 Millions of paintings were produced in the Dutch Republic The works that we know and see in museums today constitute only the tip of the iceberg the top quality part But what else was painted This book explores the low quality end of the seventeenth century art market and outlines the significance of that production in the genre of history paintings which in traditional art historical studies is usually linked to high prices famous painters and elite buyers Angela Jager analyses the producers suppliers and consumers active in this segment to gain insight into this enormous market for cheap history paintings What did the supply consist of in terms of quantity quality price and subject Who produced all these works and which production methods did these painters employ Who distributed these paintings to whom and which strategies were used to market them Who bought these paintings and why      Genocide and Retribution R.L. Braham, 2012-12-06 During the dark years of the Holocaust many of the millions of labor and concentration camp victims were sustained in their struggle for survival by the hope that their tormentors would not escape retribution This expectation was reinforced by the warnings issued by the statesmen of the anti Axis coalition and the declarations of the United States Great Britain and the USSR Shortly after the cessation of hostilities war crimes trials were indeed initiated in all parts of liberated Europe Many of the accused were indicted among other things for crimes committed against Jews People's tribunals for the prosecution of war crimes and crimes against humanity were also established in Romania a country that extricated itself from the Axis Alliance on 23 August 1944 The Romanian people's tribunals were set up and operated under the provisions of Law No 312 issued by the Ministry of Justice on 21 April 1945 One of these tribunals was established in Cluj Kolozsvar and entrusted primarily with the prosecution of those involved in the violation of the rights of people living in Northern Transylvania the part of the province that was transferred to Hungary under the terms of the Second Vienna Award August 1940 and which remained under Hungarian rule from early September 1940 until its liberation by Soviet Romanian forces in the fall of 1944 The crimes committed against the citizens of Northern Transylvania both within and outside the province were the subject of two major trials
