The Complete Thrum Series (Large Print) J. M. Barrie,2015-01-14 Early this morning I opened a window in my schoolhouse in the glen of Quharity awakened by the shivering of a starving sparrow against the frosted glass As the snowy sash creaked in my hand he made off to the water spout that suspends its tangles of ice over a gaping tank and rebounding from that with a quiver of his little black breast bobbed through the network of wire and joined a few of his fellows in a forlorn hop round the henhouse in search of food Two days ago my hilarious bantam cock saucy to the last my cheeriest companion was found frozen in his own water trough the corn saucer in three pieces by his side Since then I have taken the hens into the house At meal times they litter the hearth with each other s feathers but for the most part they give little trouble roosting on the rafters of the low roofed kitchen among staves and fishing rods
