2012 at 1 035 000 000 In 2015 it reached 1 180 000 000 According to Anthony Elliott and John Urry modern society has been characterized as being mobile and within that we are also living mobile lives In modern society flows of people things capital information ideas and technologies are constantly occurring and as they are merging like a violently rushing stream what could be termed a landscape of mobilities has appeared Social realities are in flux and are transforming to become different than they were before This volume will expand the inquiry of tourism mobilities comprehensively and clearly from the fields of humanities and social sciences In particular tourism mobilities has been actively investigated up to now in the UK US Europe and Australia but even though the Japanese body of literature contains a great many excellent studies of Japanese examples there are almost no English language articles presenting their results Publishing examples of Japanese tourism mobilities will not only foster new and exciting lines of inquiry for existing and future research on tourism mobilities but will also have implications for humanities and social sciences throughout the world
