Unfinished Manner:

The Unfinished Manner Elizabeth Wanning Harries, 1994 Fragments and Meaning in Traditional Song Mary-Ann Constantine, Gerald Porter, 2003-08-07 This is a study of very short songs pieces long perceived as fragments or remnants of longer narrative texts and dismissed as the by products of a degenerative oral tradition Coverage includes English Welsh Breton American and Finnish songs The authors argue that the inherently metaphorical and connotative idiom of traditional song makes external critical notions of completeness inappropriate in practice such pieces are rarely felt to be broken or lacking by those who sing them they have a strong metonymic force A wide range of texts and traditions is explored to suggest how short songs may convey meaning both in performance and in non traditional contexts such as the literary novel Last Things Jacques Khalip, 2018-03-27 The arrival of the Anthropocene brings the suggestion that we are only now beginning to speculate on an inhuman world that is not for us only now confronting fears and anxieties of ecological political social and philosophical extinction While pointing out that reflections on disaster were not foreign to what we historically call romanticism Last Things pushes romantic thought toward an altogether new way of conceiving the end of things one that treats lastness as neither privation nor conclusion Through quieter non emphatic modes of thinking the end of human thought Khalip explores lastness as what marks the limits of our life and world Reading the fate of romanticism and romantic studies within the key of the last Khalip refuses to elegize or celebrate our ends instead positing romanticism as a negative force that exceeds theories narratives and figures of survival and sustainability Each chapter explores a range of romantic and contemporary materials poetry by John Clare Emily Dickinson John Keats Percy Shelley and William Wordsworth philosophical texts by William Godwin David Hume Immanuel Kant and Jean Jacques Rousseau paintings by Hubert Robert Caspar David Friedrich and Paterson Ewen installations by Tatsuo Miyajima and James Turrell and photography by John Dugdale Peter Hujar and Joanna Kane Shuttling between temporalities Last Things undertakes an original reorganization of romantic thought for contemporary culture It examines an archive on the side of disappearance perishing the inhuman and lastness A Digest of the Laws of Texas Texas, George Washington Paschal, 1874 The Fine Arts Edmund Buckley, 1907 Progress, for the Promotion of the Fine Arts, 1900 The Fine Arts International Art Association, 1900 The New York Supplement, 1889 Official Reports of the Debates of the House of Commons of the Dominion of Canada Canada.
