Baker Jr, 2016-04-30 Analysis of the Effects of Boundary-layer Control on the Take-off Performance Characteristics of a Liaison-type Airplane Elmer A. Horton, John H. Quinn, 1948 A performance analysis is given to determine whether boundary layer control by suction might reduce the minimum take off distance of a four or five place airplane Results indicate that boundary layer control might be effective in improving the take off characteristics of this type airplane having wing loading of 10 or more pounds per square foot and aspect ratios of 10 or more Safe take-off with runway analyses Boris Urbanek, 2013-06-01 The economic situation of the recent years forces to operate aircraft at highest payloads possible and to load it at its maximum allowable take off masses Therefore take off performance optimization is nowadays as important as never before This book offers a summary of factors affecting the maximum take off mass and appropriate take off speeds which together represent necessary performance data for a safe take off These are usually presented in so called runway analyses That is the reason why this book might be of interest for flight operations engineering personnel or pilots as it answers possible questions about the application and computing of the runway analyses Agricultural Trade Policy in Developing Countries During Take-off Michael Stockbridge, 2007 Agricultural trade has always been one of the most sensitive international trade issues Governments around the world have long been reluctant to abandon policy instruments that give them influence over domestic prices and allow them to raise revenues This study looks briefly at the agriculture and trade policies of six different developing countries each of which has enjoyed unusually high rates of economic growth and development South Korea Malaysia Indonesia Viet Nam Chile and Botswana Their experience may shed further light on the extent to which governments should retain their powers to intervene in trade as opposed to relinquishing them in favour of market liberalisation German and English Felix Flügel, 1891 Power, 1908 Munsey's Magazine, 1917 The jungle book. c1893.
