Page,2004-09-17 Judith W Page argues that the cultural revolution of sympathy and sentiment in British literature from 1770 1830 influenced the representations of Jews and Judaism Page draws on historical materials and primary documents by and about Jews of the period as well as a variety of authors and literary genres She argues that there is a tension between the Romantic impulse to admire and sympathize with Jews and Judaism on the one hand and the traditions of anti semitism and conversionist philo Semitism on the other This often unresolved tension in the literature reflects the political and cultural struggles of the time as well as the dilemma of Romanticism which advocates sympathy but doesn t always accommodate difference Haunted Families and Temporal Normativity in Hispanic Horror Films Charles St-Georges,2018-04-20 This book examines the interactions between ghosts and families in three recent horror films from the Spanish speaking world that rather than explicitly referencing recent political violence speak to the societal conditions and everyday normative violence that serve as preconditions for political violence This study deconstructs intersectional processes of racially and sexually normative subject formation and its oppositional other ghostly erasure that are framed by a common temporal logic wherein full citizenship is contingent upon a nation s dominant notions of contemporaneousness and whether individuals properly inhabit prescriptive timelines of re productivity St Georges s study explores ways in which ghosts and families are manipulated in each national imaginary as a strategy for negotiating volatility within symbolic order a tactic that can either naturalize or challenge normative discourses As a literary and cinematic trope ghosts are particularly useful vehicles for the exploration of national imaginaries and the dominant or competing cultural attitudes towards a country s history and thus the articulation of a present political reality The rhetorical figure of the family is also key in this process as a mechanism for expressing national allegories for expressing generational anxieties about a nation s relationship to time and for organizing societies and social subjects as such interpellating them into or excluding them from national imaginaries By proposing these specific coordinates ghosts and families and by mapping their relationship between Spain and Latin America Troubling Timelines proposes a study of a temporal framework that besides bridging the traditional area studies divide across the Atlantic creates a space for interdisciplinary inquiry while also responding to increasing demand for studies that focus on intersectionality London Forum (incorporating "The Occult Review"), 1919 Ballet in Western Culture Carol Lee, 2002 A history of the development of ballet from the origins of dance through the 20th century Best Australian Ghost Stories Graham Seal, 2025-09-30 Australia s master storyteller uncovers stories of hauntings and uncanny events in the bush and in our towns and maybe in your own neighbourhood too Have you ever seen heard or felt something that cannot be rationally explained Australia is troubled by the departed spirits of convicts bushrangers drovers nurses and miners People have seen spectres in pubs theatres lighthouses asylums and by lonely waterholes There are locations in the bush that send a shiver down your spine as well as some truly perplexing phenomena such as the Spirit Stones of Mayanup Quinn s Light the Guyra Ghost the Humpty Doo haunting and the Min Min lights Master storyteller Graham Seal recounts the sinister legends of ghost towns blasted mines and other ill omened places He has uncovered the histories behind the most haunted sites in Australia our Bermuda Triangle the convict era ghosts still troubling the Hawkesbury River phantom ships and gruesome unsolved crimes which have left unsettled spirits Uncanny experiences are regularly reported even by people who usually don t believe in such things Whether they are real or not our ghosts exist most powerfully in the stories we tell about them We ve been frightening ourselves with these yarns for a long time Graham Seal has the knack of the storyteller Warren Fahey Ripper fair dinkum true blue Aussie yarns The Weekly Times W.I.T.C.H.: The Graphic Novel, Part V.
