Transmissibility Jae Emerling,2023-08-17 This book examines transmissibility to remind us why the vitality and epistemic significance of an artwork is anachronistic and futural Transmissibility Writing Aesthetic History performs a transdisciplinary philosophy of aesthetic history via the work of Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari Cy Twombly Marina Abramovi Paul Celan Cecil Taylor Italo Calvino Candida H fer and others by focusing on the artistic and historiographic labor that differentiates artworks from other modes of creation The Playfulness of Gerard Manley Hopkins Joseph J. Feeney,2016-03-03 Renowned Hopkins expert Joseph J Feeney SJ offers a fresh take on Gerard Manley Hopkins which shakes our understanding of his poetry and his life and points towards the next phase in Hopkins studies While affirming the received view of Hopkins as a major poet of nature religion and psychology Feeney finds a pervasive rarely noticed playfulness by employing both the theory of play and close reading of his texts This new Hopkins lived a playful life from childhood till death as a student who loved puns and jokes and wrote parodies comic verse and satires as a Jesuit who played and organized games and had a gift for mimicry and most significantly as a poet and prose stylist who rewards readers with unexpected displays of whimsy and incongruity even strikingly in The Wreck of the Deutschland The Windhover and the Terrible Sonnets Feeney convincingly argues that Hopkins s distinctive playfulness is inextricably bound to his sense of fun his creativity his style and his competitiveness with other poets In unexpected images quirky metaphors strange perspectives puns coinages twisted syntax wordmusic and sprung rhythm we see his playful streak burst forth to adorn those works critics consider his most brilliant No one who absorbs this book's radical readings will ever see and hear Hopkins's poetry and prose quite the way they used to

First Pages Giancarlo Maiorino, 2010-11 Titology a term first coined in 1977 by literary critic Harry Levin is the field of literary studies that focuses on the significance of a title in establishing the thematic developments of the pages that follow While the term has been used in the literary community for thirty years this book presents for the first time a thoroughly developed theoretical discussion on the significance of the title as a foundation for scholarly criticism Though Maiorino acknowledges that many titles are superficial and indexical there exists a separate and more complex class of titles that do much more than simply decorate a book's spine To prove this argument Maiorino analyzes a wide range of examples from the modern era through high modernism to postmodernism with writings spanning the globe from Spain and France to Germany and America By examining works such as Essais The Waste Land Ulysses and Don Quixote First Pages proves the power of the title to connect the reader to the thematic cultural and literary context of the writing as a whole Much like a facade to a building the title page serves as the frontispiece of literature a sign that offers perspective and demands interpretation

Calvino's Fictions Kathryn Hume, 1992 Throughout the novels and stories The cosmicomical tales with their focus on science are seen as crucial to the development of the symbolic mindscapes that made Calvino a major international writer He died before arriving at any satisfactory solution to the problems of relating the I to the not I but Hume derives from his later works a philosophy based on the creation of likenesses of internal microcosms that permit us to mirror the macrocosm These interior
